Golden Grads

The Golden Grad class of 1969 were the first freshman to attend California State College San Bernardino. Warmth and excitement filled the room, as our Golden Grads of 1967, 1968, and 1969 reconnected and shared stories of their collegiate years. Our Golden Grads may have started out as Saint Bernards, but now each have become a proud #Coyote4Life

Homecoming

Homecoming is making a return and it is going to be howling! Join the #Coyote4Life family as we rally up our Coyote pride to cheer on the Women's Volley ball team. The Homecoming bash will include free food and drinks, kid-friendly activities, student zone, giveaways, and much more!

Yotes Keep #1 National Ranking

The Coyotes spent five weeks last season in the top spot and only fell out for three polls dating back to last season's postseason poll.

The Coyotes are receiving 40 votes in the lastest poll, up five from last week.

This season, the Yotes are off to a 9-0 start with two top-10 wins and only two dropped sets. They start CCAA action at home this week, welcoming CSU San Marcos at 7 pm on Friday. Live links are on CSUSBathletics.com.

TVCC Announces Emily Falappino as New CEO

The Temecula Valley Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors is pleased to announce that Emily Falappino '17 will succeed Alice Sullivan as the new TVCC President/CEO. This comes after months of rigorous search that began in Temecula's own backyard then eventually spanned to include an outreach that would become nationwide.

A graduate of Temecula Valley High School, Falappino has been with Stryder Transportation and Grapeline, Inc. since 2006 and has held the position of General Manager since 2012. She is a graduate of the University of Phoenix and holds an MBA from Cal State San Bernardino, Summa Cum Laude. With contributions stemming from the City of Temecula's Economic Development to Visit Temecula Valley, Falappino has made a career of invoking the highest quality in service and productivity. Her professional accolades include Star of the Valley Award Recipient as the Most Driven Professional and TVCC's Valley Young Professional of the Year Award.
