San Diego, California
May 3 – 4, 2018

CONFERENCE GUIDE

Celebrating 25 Years of Service to the Higher Education Community

WELCOME

On behalf of the Planning Committee, I welcome you to the 2018 CIAC Annual Conference in America's Finest City, San Diego.

2018 is very special to CIAC, as we have reached a milestone. 25 years ago, CIAC was founded by visionary leaders who understood the fundamental importance and value of colleges and universities working closely together. We honor the pioneering efforts of our charter members who established a forum for articulation personnel, from each higher education system and sector, to provide the necessary tools that enable students to effectively achieve their academic and transfer goals.

Over the last 25 years, CIAC members have made tremendous contributions to the transfer effort. This conference will allow us, as a professional community, to celebrate our achievements, renew friendships, extend networks, and jointly explore current and future directions.

An exciting program has been planned that will allow members to share thoughts, exchange ideas, and receive current information, training, and professional development that is consistent with our purpose.

The SCIAC Executive Board and I are privileged to serve you and the incredible CIAC organization. Our hope is that you will be empowered and energized as we journey toward new heights.

With Gratitude,

Juliette Parker, Chair
Southern California Intersegmental Articulation Council (SCIAC)

DR. BRIANA BOYD

Briana L. Boyd, Ph.D., is a licensed clinical psychologist in San Diego, California. Dr. Boyd received her B.A. in Psychology at Humboldt State University and her M.S. and Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology at Howard University in Washington, D.C. She completed her clinical internship at The Boston Consortium, a multi-site clinical psychology training program offered through The Boston VA Healthcare System, Boston University School of Medicine, and Harvard Medical School where she specialized in treating severe psychopathology, substance abuse, and rehabilitation psychology. Dr. Boyd completed her postdoctoral training at the Institute of Living, Hartford Hospital with specializations in assessment and diagnosis and anxiety treatment. Dr. Boyd moved to San Diego in 2009 where she worked at University of California, San Diego (UCSD), Counseling and Psychological Services. There she treated UCSD students with an emphasis on supporting the African-American students attending the university. She left UCSD to conduct research with Veterans in the areas of Posttraumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI) at Veterans Medical Research Foundation (VMRF) and the VA San Diego Health Care System in La Jolla. Dr. Boyd now specializes in the treatment of PTSD, TBI, and anxiety disorders in US military service members and civilians. Dr. Boyd left VMRF in 2017 to work in her private practice full-time.

Dr. Boyd is an adjunct faculty member at San Diego State University where she teaches graduate courses on Trauma and Crisis Intervention as well as undergraduate courses on Stress Management and Self-love/Self-compassion in the Counseling and School Psychology Department and The Honors College. Dr. Boyd is also a psychological consultant and subject matter expert for legal proceedings in the area of combat related PTSD and stress reactivity.

Dr. Boyd now has a thriving private practice in Bankers hill where she treats PTSD, combat related PTSD, childhood trauma and sexual abuse, traumatic brain injury, anxiety and panic disorder, obsessive-compulsive disorder, poor boundaries, poor self-image, family and relational issues, and couples. Dr. Boyd uses a social justice framework to treat all of her patients and is committed to cultivating love and justice in the community.

J. ROBIN LANGLEY

J. Robin Langley, of J. Langley Associates, is a master negotiator and trainer who spent the last 27 years as an executive in the Michigan Education Association. During that time, Robin was a Labor Relations Consultant, where she worked with various school districts, colleges, and universities on behalf of faculty and staff. She also bargained and maintained many contracts and provided training on education-related and personal development topics. Robin transitioned to become the Human Resources Director for the Michigan Education Association, with primary responsibility for implementing the company's seven labor contracts and developing and implementing training for all professional, support, and management staff; she then continued that work as the Director of Member Engagement, heading up all professional development and training for over 100,000 members of the organization.

Robin is a lover of all people and is passionate about helping individuals become fully conscience of their strengths and those things that may need development. She has spent many years developing her training prowess, including being certified to administer the Myers Briggs Type Indicator, train others to become master trainers, provide 7 Habits of Highly Effective People training, and interest based bargaining training, along with several other development topics.

Robin graduated Summa Cum Laude from the National Labor College in Silver Spring, Maryland with a bachelor's degree in Labor Studies and is in the Organizational Development Master's Program at American University in Washington, D.C. Robin and her husband (Jonathan), live in Lansing, Michigan with their two daughters, Nia and Aliya, and Aliya's two dogs, Chester and Gómez.
