

Academic Affairs
Office of the Provost and Vice President

January 26, 2017

Dear Colleagues,

Please welcome Dr. George Georgiou, Professor of Computer Science and Engineering, to his new position as Special Assistant to the Provost and Vice President of Student Affairs. Dr. Georgiou will build upon relations with our community colleges and promote two-year transfer graduation rates. He will be reaching out to you in the near future to look at transfer data in your department/college as part of his efforts to achieve better alignment with local community colleges.

Dr. Georgiou joined Cal State San Bernardino in 1992 as an assistant professor and has since served in a variety of leadership positions, including Chair/Director of the School of Computer Science and Engineering (2006-2010), Assistant Dean (2005-2006), and Associate Dean (2010-2013) of the College of Natural Sciences. He received a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from Louisiana Tech University, master's degrees in electrical engineering and mathematics from Louisiana State University, and a master's and doctorate degrees in computer science from Tulane University.

Dr. Georgiou research interests are in the areas of neural networks, machine learning, artificial intelligence, and self-organizing systems. His research has been published in journals, including the prestigious IEEE Transactions on Neural Networks and Learning Systems, and presented at international conferences.

Please join me in congratulating Dr. Georgiou on his new role.

Sincerely,
Shari McMahan, Ph.D.
Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs
