

February 2014

Looking for something to do this month, but don't know what? Luckily, this month is jam packed with awesome events that you can go to.

Not only is February the month of lovers and friends, it is also Black History Month. Fortunately, our Cross Cultural Center, Black Student Union, Pfau Library, Black Faculty Union, Black Faculty Staff & Student Association, Student African American Sisterhood and Student African American Brotherhood have put together numerous events to celebrate this historic month. Let's break it down week by week:

This upcoming week, 2/17 – 2/21, there will be three interesting events:

- History of the "N" Word on 2/18 starting at 7 p.m. in the SMSU Event Center;
- A Jazz Music Lecture on the 19th starting at 12 pm in PL – 4005; and
- SAAS: Words That Define Me and You Down to Dance? both on the 20th of this month starting at 6 p.m. in the Student Union.

To end the month, the week of 2/24 – 02/28 there will be:

- A movie screening of The Butler on Tuesday the 25th in Pfau Library, Room 5005 at 5:30 p.m.
- A Black History Month Assembly on 2/27 at 7 p.m. in the SMSU Event Center; and
- The Pioneer Breakfast on 2/28, starting at 9 a.m. in the SMSU Event Center so make sure to get your tickets at the Cross Cultural Center for a free breakfast!

Looking to participate in different health workshops? The Psychological Counseling Center will be hosting various Thrive! Health and Wellness Workshops dates include:

2/18

2/25

and 2/26

covering a wide span of topics, so make sure to check them out! <http://healthcenter.csusb.edu/thrive.html>

Other events going on this month include The Santos Manuel Student Union's Birthday on 2/19. It starts at 2 p.m. in the SMSU Student Union and to celebrate the SMSU birthday, there will be a free nacho bar along with games, scavenger hunts and free giveaways! Also, Dances with Buffalo Child will be held on 2/25 in Room 107 in the Student Union at 4 p.m., a Self-Defense Class on the 28th in the Woman's Resource Center starting at 4 p.m., and a charity Glow Run on the 28th hosted by the Panhellenic Council. Check-in starts at 5 p.m. and the race begins at 6 p.m. in the Lower Commons.

Lastly, February 21, 2014 our Military Appreciation Night! The night will start out with a Tailgate starting at 4 p.m. There will be food and entertainment to pump everyone up for the basketball game. The tailgate will continue until 7 p.m. and the Men's Basketball Game will start half an hour later, so make sure to watch our Coyotes play the Sonoma State Seawolves and enjoy the military-themed festivities. To end the night, the Program Board will be hosting CSUSB's annual Yote Gras Dance from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m., so get your dance on in the Student Union Lobby and enjoy the rest of night.
