

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Date, Time, Location

Tuesday, February 23, 2021

11:00am-12:00pm

Zoom information provided upon registration

Program Description

Guest Facilitator: Charles Gaylord, Cross Cultural Center

Get to know your colleague(s) in the Cross Cultural Center and attend February's Coyote Learning Circle! In honor of Black History Month, February's Coyote Learning Circle will provide an opportunity for attendees to learn how grassroots community activism during the Black Power Movement led to the foundation of African American Studies.

- Discover the impact of student leadership within the Black Power Movement
- Understand the connection between off-campus Black communities and the creation of African American Studies
- Increase your understanding of African American studies and its relevancy to the work done in the Cross Cultural Center

Registration Information

To register, click here.

If you are in need of an accommodation, please email staffdevelopmentcenter@csusb.edu or call (909) 537-3125 at least 72 hours in advance .

Learning Circle
Coyote