WORTH THE INVESTMENT:

A conversation on & celebration of professional development.

Date, Time, Location

Tuesday, September 29, 2020

11:00am-12:00pm

Zoom information provided upon registration

Program Description

On September 12, 2017 the Staff Development Center (SDC) opened its doors and committed to promoting professional and personal development opportunities for CSUSB colleagues! In recognition of the Staff Development Center's three-year anniversary, this month's Coyote Learning Circle is all about professional and career development.

Attend this special session to:

- Discover how the SDC can support your professional development needs
- Understand current career and professional development trends
- Gain tips and tools to building your own professional development plan
