

JUST ASK II:

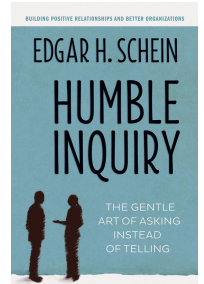

A continuation of Humble Inquiry, the gentle art of asking instead of telling.

Date, Time, Location

Tuesday, December 8, 2020

12:00pm-1:00pm

Zoom information provided upon registration

Program Description

Join us for the continuation of a virtual conversation on Humble Inquiry. Edgar H. Schein, organizational consultant and author of the book Humble Inquiry provides worthwhile insights to consider and encourages his readers to embrace the gentle art of asking instead of telling.

- Shift from a culture of telling others to a culture of asking others
- Identify healthy and effective approaches towards communication
- Apply humble inquiry approaches to your work environment

Download eBook or audio book

Get a head start and consider reading Chapters 3 & 4.

- Navigate to CSULearn via MyCoyote
- Click on the magnify glass/search icon
- Change drop down from 'Learn' to 'Books & Videos'
- Search for 'Humble Inquiry'

Registration Information

To register, click here.

If you are in need of an accommodation, please email staffdevelopmentcenter@csusb.edu at least 72 hours in advance.