

The CSUSB Modern China Lecture Series and the History Department Present:

The Chinese Economy with Dr. Barry Naughton (UCSD) A Brownbag Q&A

Thursday, October 16, 2014, 12pm to 1:30pm SB-302B

Please join us for a question-and-answer session with preeminent China economist, Dr. Barry Naughton of the University of California, San Diego. Understanding the Chinese economy is a challenging but essential task of today's informed global citizen, and this is an opportunity to bring your questions to one of the leading experts on the topic. All on campus are welcome. Please feel free to bring your lunch.

Dr. Barry Naughton is Sokwanlok Chair of Chinese International Affairs and Professor of Chinese Economy in UCSD's School of International Relations and Pacific Studies. He is an authority on the Chinese economy and has published widely on the topic, including authoring The Chinese Economy: Transitions and Growth (MIT, 2007), Growing Out of the Plan: Chinese Economic Reform, 1978-1993 (Cambridge, 1995, winner of the Ohira Memorial Prize), and many articles, as well as editing or co-editing volumes on topics related to the Chinese economy.

Co-Sponsors of the event are CSUSB History Department, History Club/Phi Alpha Theta, the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences, the College of Extended Learning, the Center for Global Management and College of Business and Public Administration, the University Diversity Committee, Pfau Library, and the Intellectual Life Fund. Please Contact Jeremy Murray (History Department) With any questions at jmurray@csusb.edu.
