After a brief overview of changes in the post-martial law museum landscape in Taiwan, the lecture explores The National Museum of Taiwan History in terms of the politics of historical memory.

Kirk A. Denton is a professor of Chinese literature and culture at The Ohio State University. He is the author of The Problematic of Self in Modern Chinese Literature: Hu Feng and Lu Ling (1998), Exhibiting the Past: Historical Memory and the Politics of Museums in Postsocialist China (2014), and The Landscape of Historical Memory: The Politics of Museums and Memorial Culture in Post-Martial Law Taiwan (2021). He is also editor of the journal Modern Chinese Literature and Culture.
