

JHBC OFFICE OF ACADEMIC EQUITY

JHBC IN MOTION

Summer 2020

---

Jack H. Brown College of Business and Public Administration

Lisa Gordon

For her support to the organization, “Music Changing Lives”. An organization aiming at bringing music to underserved communities.

---

Theresa Salas

For her contribution to the success of the Vagina Monologues organized with the Women's Resource center. The Vagina Monologues addressed women's sexuality and the social stigma surrounding rape and abuse.

---

Jamie Ayala

For her participation in the CAPIO events which is designed to improve the understanding of microaggressions, inequities and the use of pronouns.

---

Maria Domingo

For her participation in the UGS monthly training programs designed to improve advisors' understanding, communication, and interaction with people across cultures.

---

Kori Bernatzke

For her attendance to the event, “Movement Building in the Time of the Coronavirus Crisis” which is designed to evaluate equitability of resources and encouraging movement-making actions that can be performed in a virtual environment.

---

Melissa Farley

For her leading role in the success of the event: “Path to Healing”. The event explored systemic racism and the issues of race and equity considering the current event.

---