ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION, OF

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS, INCORPORATED (ASI)
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY,
SAN BERNARDINO

Approved, Updated, and Adopted by the ASI Board of Directors:
BD 15-24 | February 23, 2024

ARTICLE I
Membership

Section 1. Active Membership. The Corporation shall have only one class of members within the meaning of Section 5056 (a) of the California Corporation Code.

- A. Such members are hereinafter referred to as Members, and shall be limited to students enrolled at California State University, San Bernardino (hereafter referred to as CSUSB), other than students registered solely in extension classes.
- B. All Members must pay the semester Associated Students, Incorporated (hereafter referred to as ASI) membership fee described in Article I, Section 5 of these Bylaws, except for those members defined by the CSU or CSUSB as eligible for fee waivers.
- C. Members are entitled to vote in any ASI election, receive notices of meetings, be appointed, or elected as Directors or Executive Officers, inspect certain books and records, and otherwise exercise rights of a member as set forth in the provisions of the California Non-profit Corporation Law.

Section 2. Honorary Membership. Honorary Membership may be granted to people who have served the ASI in exceptional capacities.

- A. Pursuant to Section 5332 of the California Corporations Code, Honorary Membership may be granted to any individual by a resolution of the Board of Directors (hereafter referred to as the BoD) passed by a majority vote of the filled voting positions present at the BoD meeting.
- B. Honorary Members are entitled to all ASI privileges exclusive of making motions, voting, and holding office, and will not be required to pay a membership fee.

Section 3. Term of Membership.

- A. Members. Membership shall be determined on a semester basis, with membership commencing on the first day of the semester for which membership fees were paid and terminating immediately prior to the first day of the subsequent semester. If a member is terminated from enrollment either voluntarily or by the University, their membership is expired.
- B. Honorary Members. A lifetime membership shall be granted to all Honorary Members unless otherwise specified by the ASI BoD.

Section 4. Membership Not Transferable. Membership in the Corporation is not transferable.

Section 5. Membership Fees.

- A. The membership fee is fixed pursuant to California Education Code Section 89300, and is subject to increase only upon approval by majority vote of the Members.
- B. The membership fee shall be collected at the time of registration with CSUSB, except as otherwise provided in the California Education Code Section 89301.
- C. In the case that membership terminates or is terminated mid semester, the membership fee is non-refundable, pursuant to university policy.

Section 6. Special Advisors.

- A. Special Advisor as designated by the ASI BoD: A Special Advisor shall function under the following criteria. Special Advisors:
 - 1. Are not voting members of the BoD.
 - 2. May not be counted for quorum.
 - 3. Cannot motion or second.
 - 4. Cannot vote.
 - 5. May participate in BoD discussions.
 - 6. May participate as members on committees.
 - 7. Are exempt from BoD meeting attendance requirements.
- B. Term: The term for Special Advisors will be one fiscal year or the balance of the fiscal year in which they are appointed if the appointment was made after July 1st.

Section 7. Administrative Appointees.

- A. Administrative Appointees are regular full-time employees of California State University, San Bernardino, California (CSUSB) or Associated Students, Incorporated (ASI), and are voting members of the BoD by virtue of their employment position or appointment by the President of CSUSB. The following positions are named as Administrative Appointees:
 - 1. ASI Executive Director
 - 2. ASI Advisor (Dean of Students)
- B. Term: The positions designated above shall have an indefinite appointment to the BoD unless amended by law.

ARTICLE II

Membership Voting

Section 1. Single Class of Membership. The Corporation shall have one class of voting membership consisting of those persons identified in Article I, Section 1 of these Bylaws.

Section 2. Member Voting Rights. On each matter submitted to a vote of the Members, each Member shall be entitled to cast one vote. Proxy voting is prohibited.

Section 3. Manner of Casting Votes. Cumulative voting is prohibited.

Section 4. Action By Written/Electronic Ballot Without a Meeting.

- A. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, any matter or issue requiring the vote of the Members, including the election of Directors, may be submitted for vote by ballot without the necessity of calling a meeting of the Members, so long as the requirements for action by ballot set forth in this Section 4 are met. Except as otherwise determined by the ASI BoD in a specific instance, and except for a request pursuant to Article IX, Section 2 of these Bylaws, for a special meeting, all matters to be put to a vote of the Members shall be conducted pursuant to a ballot as set forth in this Section 4.
- B. Content of Ballots. Any ballot distributed to the Members to vote on an issue shall set forth the proposed action and provide an opportunity to specify approval or disapproval of the proposal.

Section 5. General Election.

- A. A General Election shall be conducted annually in accordance with the current ASI Elections policy.
- B. Elections may only be conducted during the fall and spring semesters excluding the fall, spring, and summer breaks. No elections, or election activities, will be conducted during final exam week.
- C. The grade point average (GPA) to run for any major student government office will be defined in the ASI GPA Policy in accordance with the CSU Chancellor's Office Policy for Minimum Academic Qualifications. The rules governing the specifics of the minimum to maintain office will be specified in the ASI GPA Policy.
- D. Students may not hold an individual executive office as defined in Article IV for more than two (2) terms, whether or not those two terms are consecutive or non-consecutive terms, within a six-year period after the initial point of matriculation.
- E. The specific regulations governing all elections shall be stated in the Elections Policy. All amendments to the Elections Policy shall be made sixty (60) days prior to an election and approved by a simple majority of the ASI BoD.
- F. In the event of a conflict between the ASI Bylaws and the ASI Elections Policy, the ASI Bylaws will prevail.

ARTICLE III

Board of Directors

Section 1. General Corporation Procedures.

- A. The ASI BoD shall be the primary policy making body of ASI and shall be the final authority for all the corporate matters of ASI.
- B. The ASI BoD shall interpret student issues and perspectives which shall then be carried out by the ASI executives, directors, chairs, committees (Standing, Regular or Ad Hoc), and employees.
- C. The ASI BoD may express its representative position by praise, censure, sanction, or suggestion to the administration, faculty, student body, or other groups. Censure or sanction may take whatever form the ASI BoD sees fit to impose on a case-by-case basis within the framework of its fiscal and corporate responsibilities. This includes, but is not limited to, such penalties as withholding funds, stipends/wages or funds granted through any other ASI committee, sub-committee or entity to whatever individual or organization. Once an item of potential sanction or censure is brought to the attention of the BoD, the BoD may appoint an ad-hoc committee to investigate the situation, or the BoD may pursue other courses of action at their discretion. The decision of the BoD in resolving the issue(s) is final.
- D. The ASI BoD may delegate the management of the activities of the Corporation to any person/persons or committee (Standing, Regular, or Ad Hoc) composed of a minimum of two (2) or more voting Directors provided that:
 - 1. The activities and affairs shall be managed, and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the ASI BoD.
 - 2. There are six types of actions which, regardless of ASI BoD resolution, cannot be delegated to any committee. They are:
 - a. the filling of vacancies on the BoD or in any committee.
 - b. the amendment or repeal of Bylaws or the adoption of any new Bylaws.
 - c. the amendment or repeal of any resolution of the BoD which by its express terms is not so amendable or repealable.
 - d. the appointment of other committees of the BoD or the members thereof.
 - e. the approval of any self-dealing transaction, as such transactions are defined in Sections 89906 - 89909 of the Education Code

Section 2. Composition. The ASI BoD shall be comprised of the following:

- A. Voting student directors of the ASI BoD shall consist of:
1. President (Chair)
 2. Executive Vice President
 3. Vice President of Finance
 4. One (1) Director from the College of Education (or Liberal Studies).
 5. One (1) Director from the College of Arts and Letters.
 6. One (1) Director from the College of Natural Sciences.
 7. One (1) Director from the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences.
 8. One (1) Director from the Graduate Studies program.
 9. One (1) Director from the College of Business and Public Administration.
 10. Two (2) Directors At Large.
 11. One (1) Director representing Athletics (current or former CSUSB student athlete).

 14. One (1) Director representing students with disabilities.
 15. One (1) Director representing clubs and organizations on campus.
 16. Vice President of Palm Desert Campus.

Non-Student Voting Members

1. One (1) Director (administration member) appointed by the University President.
2. The ASI Executive Director in their capacity as the Chief Financial Officer (CFO).
3. The ASI Advisor appointed by the University Vice President of Student Affairs.
4. One (1) Director (faculty member) appointed by the Faculty Senate.
5. One (1) Director (staff member) appointed by Staff Council.

B. Special Advisors to the ASI BoD

1. The following positions are designated as Special Advisors to the ASI Board of Directors:
 - a. ASI Director of External Affairs
 - b. ASI Director of Internal Affairs
 - c. Special Representatives as appointed by the BoD
2. A non-student Special Representative's appointment is for one year, or until June 30th of the academic year of the appointment.

C. From time-to-time, there will be vacant positions on the BoD owing to the nature of student/faculty/staff schedules and other demands on BoD members' time which may compel a BoD member to resign from the Board of Directors. When vacancies on the BoD occur, members of the ASI leadership will conduct a recruiting effort to attract interested and qualified candidates to fill these positions. During these periods of vacant BoD positions, the BoD will continue to conduct business with the available members and will count quorum as specified in Article IX, Section 6A.

Section 3. Qualifications & Eligibility. The ASI Executive Director shall request the ASI Advisor to verify the qualifications of ASI BoD members.

- A. Undergraduate students, as defined by university policy, must meet the minimum academic eligibility requirements established for the California State University and ASI Policies and Procedures. Failure to meet the minimum academic eligibility requirements will require the student's resignation from office.
- B. Graduate students, as defined by university policy, are allowed to hold any ASI BoD position, providing that they are certified by the Dean of Graduate Studies in good standing and are regularly enrolled. Graduate students must meet the minimum academic eligibility requirements established for the California State University. Failure to meet the minimum academic eligibility requirements will require the student's resignation from office.
- C. Individuals that were previously elected or appointed to office and were unable to fulfill their duties as stated in these Bylaws, are ineligible to assume office.

Section 4. Term of Office. The ASI BoD student members shall serve terms of one (1) fiscal year in length.

Section 5. Vacancies. Student vacancies on the ASI BoD shall be filled by recommendation of majority vote of the ASI Vacancy Committee in accordance with Article VI Section 2.

- A. If at the beginning of an academic semester there are insufficient students to compose a majority of the membership of the Board of Directors, the ASI President will nominate students to be appointed to the Board of Directors and the Administrative Appointees as designated in Article I, section 7 will vote to confirm those appointees until the BoD is composed of a majority of students and the vacant positions are filled.

Section. 6 Resignation. In the event a Board Member should resign, a written notice of their resignation shall be submitted to the Chair. In the event of an involuntary resignation (as defined by Article IX, Section 11 of these Bylaws) no such written notice is required.

Section 7. Powers. The activities and affairs of the Corporation shall be conducted, and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the ASI BoD. The ASI BoD shall have the power and duty to:

- A. Delegate the management of the activities of the Corporation to any person(s) or committee(s), provided that the activities and affairs of the Corporation shall continue to be under the ultimate direction of the ASI BoD.
- B. Oversee and provide for the general direction of all executives, agents and employees of the Corporation, and ensure that their duties are properly performed.
 - 1. In the event that an elected or appointed agent of the Corporation fails to properly perform their duties as stipulated in the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, ASI Corporate Policies and Procedures, or official acts of the ASI BoD, the ASI BoD may delegate such a duty to another executive, agent, or employee of the Corporation ensuring that it does not breach any contracts of employment.
 - 2. Such a delegation of power requires at least majority vote of the filled voting positions present at the BoD meeting and is not subject to veto (unless it is a breach of an employment contract).
- C. Approve new Bylaws or change existing Bylaws in accordance with Article XI, Section 3 of these Bylaws.
- D. Review, amend, approve, and present the annual budget of the Corporation to the President of the University.
 - 1. Once the budget is approved, any changes contrary to the original amount allocated to any line item will not be increased more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) without approval of the ASI BoD.
 - 2. The ASI BoD may transfer funds between any line-item account in the ASI budget.
- E. Create such Policies and Procedures as it deems necessary for procedural and administrative purposes, subject to approval by a majority vote of the filled voting positions present at the BoD meeting.
- F. Shall resolve an election dispute in which the election was invalidated or the candidate was disqualified from running for office by the Election's Committee (See Article VI, Section 2, B1, 6) of these bylaws.

Section 8. General Responsibilities.

- A. Committees. All student ASI BoD members shall participate and serve on a minimum of two (2) campus wide committees. Committee responsibility includes attendance at each meeting, active participation, and reporting back to the BoD after each meeting. Board Members who fail to meet their committee requirements throughout the academic year may be removed from office.
- B. Office Hours. All ASI student BoD members shall establish and maintain a series of office hours to be no less than three (3) hours per week during the fall and spring semesters. Office hours are to be interpreted as time spent, or attending meetings with deans/university officials, volunteering at ASI events, serving on campus-wide committees, working on reports, and developing engagement opportunities. The date and time of these office hours shall be displayed in a public location. Board members who fail to establish and attend office hours during the academic year may be removed from office.

- C. Meeting Attendance. All student representatives to the ASI BoD are required to attend all ASI BoD meetings and not miss more than 4 meetings in an academic year. Board members who fail to attend four (4) regularly scheduled meetings in an academic year will be removed from office. An attendance report shall be kept by the Executive Vice President.
- D. Reports. Board Members are required to submit written reports on behalf of their constituency on the last Wednesday of every month to the ASI BoD Chair (not including summer), these reports must be placed on the ASI website.
- E. Training and Orientations. Board Members will be found in breach of their responsibilities if they fail to attend trainings or orientations. Excusal from these responsibilities will require written communication submitted to the ASI President ahead of time. A training or orientation may only be considered mandatory after a majority of the BoD has voted in favor of having one at a regularly scheduled meeting. Board members may only be excused for valid medical emergencies or illnesses.

Section 9. Removal of Board Members.

Board Members of the Corporation are subject from removal for breach of duties and responsibilities provided for in these Bylaws under Article III, section 8, the breach of any fiduciary duty, eligibility requirement or failure to comply with ASI Policy and Procedures. Any Board member who fails or ceases to meet any requirements as set forth in these bylaws will be removed from office, but may have an opportunity to appeal for reinstatement.

A. Appeal Process

1. Officers or Board Members that have been deemed of breach their responsibilities under Article II, section 8 will have an opportunity to appeal to the BoD to remain in office.
2. The ASI BoD can reinstate a board member by a 2/3 vote of the voting filled ASI BoD during a regularly scheduled meeting.
3. No appeals can be made for attendance or conduct removals. Academic appeals are covered in the ASI GPA policy.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1. Right of Indemnity.

- A. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Corporation shall indemnify its directors, Executive Officers, employees, and other persons described in Section 5238 (a) of the California Corporations Code, including persons formerly occupying any such position, against all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with and a preceding as that term is used in that Section, and including an action by or in the right of the Corporation by reason of the fact that the person is or was a person described in that Section.
- B. “Expenses”, as used in the bylaw, shall have the same meaning as in Section 5238(a) of the California Corporations Code.

Section 2. Approval of Indemnity. Any incident in which indemnification may be required will be reported immediately to ASI’s insurance company and Executive Director. Indemnification decisions will be made based on the recommendations from ASI’s insurance company and Executive Director.

Section 3. Insurance. The Corporation shall have the right to purchase and maintain insurance to the fullest extent permitted by law on behalf of its directors, Executive Officers, employees, and other agents, against any liability asserted against or incurred by any director, Executive Officer, employee, or agent in such capacity or arising out of the director’s, Executive Officers, employees, or agent's status as such.

ARTICLE VI Committees

Section 1. Meetings and Actions of Committees.

- A. Meetings and actions of committees shall be governed by, held and taken in accordance with, the provisions of Article IX of these Bylaws, concerning meetings and procedures (including requirements of notice, posting and open meetings).
- B. Special meetings of committees may also be called by resolution of the ASI BoD. Notice of special meetings of committees shall also be given to any and all alternate members, who shall have the right to attend all meetings of the committee.
- C. Minutes shall be kept of each meeting of any committee and shall be filed with the corporate records (with the exception of the Personnel Committee).
- D. The ASI BoD may adopt rules consistent with the provisions of these Bylaws for the operation of any committee.
- E. Notwithstanding any sections of these Bylaws, members of any committee must meet the minimum academic eligibility requirements established for the California State University and ASI Policies and Procedures. Failure to meet the minimum academic eligibility requirements will require the student's resignation from any committee.
- F. The membership of all ASI committees, working groups or task forces may not have more than two members of the same chartered or recognized student organization, club, etc. appointed to that committee. The purpose of this restriction is to prevent conflict of interest issues and ensure the smooth operation of the committee.
- G. In the event that a member should resign, a written notice of their resignation shall be submitted to the Chair. In the event of an involuntary resignation (as defined in Article IX, Section 11 of these Bylaws), no such written notice is required.
- H. In respect to ASI Policies and Procedures, any Standing or Ad-hoc committee, except the Executive Committee (as provided for in Article VI, Section 2, Subsection 2) may only make recommendations to the ASI BoD.

Section 2. Standing Committees.

- A. ASI Standing Committees shall operate in accordance with approved ASI BoD Policies and Procedures. Such Policies and Procedures may define or specify the membership of such committees, subject to this Section. The term of appointment for all standing committees will be for one fiscal year.
- B. Standing Committees will be responsible for developing agenda materials that are posted 72 hours in advance of a scheduled meeting.
- C. Quorum shall be present at a meeting of one half (1/2) of the voting membership of the committee.

- D. If not already designated below, Standing Committees will delegate the responsibility of collecting minutes for each scheduled meeting to a voting member.
- E. Chairs of each Standing Committee will be responsible for reporting back to the ASI BoD following their scheduled meeting.
- F. The Standing Committees of the ASI BoD are as follows:

1. Elections Committee

a. Purpose. The Elections Committee shall be responsible for:

1. Conducting all ASI elections in conformance with these bylaws, the Corporation's Election Policy, University policies, and the California Non-profit Public Benefit Corporation Law.
2. Ensuring that only current ASI members vote.
3. Resolving disputes and charges of Election Policy violations.
 - a) In accordance with the ASI Elections Policy and Procedures the Elections Committee will be responsible for announcing their decision on all violations in a timely manner to all parties involved. A reason for their decision must also be provided.
 - b) The decision of the Elections Committee is final for all those violations that do not involve the disqualification of a candidate or the invalidation of an election. Should the Elections Committee determine that a violation is serious enough to warrant the invalidation of an election and/or the disqualification of a candidate, the decision to invalidate the election and/or disqualify a candidate must be presented to the Board of Directors (BoD) for review and final approval unless, in the case of the disqualification of a candidate, the disqualified candidate waives, in writing, their right to a BoD review. The decision of the Board of Directors is final.
 - c) Before the BoD can rule on a decision made by the Elections Committee regarding the invalidation of an election or the disqualification of a candidate, the BoD will conduct a hearing in the following manner:
 - i. The hearing must be placed as an item on the BoD agenda for consideration.
 - ii. The Elections Committee, as well as the party to the invalidation of the election or the disqualification of a candidate will state their side of the issue before the BoD.
 - iii. The BoD will hear and carefully consider the facts surrounding the issues.
 - iv. The BoD will render a decision and close the item of business.

- v. Any decision, whether the BoD upholds the Elections Committee decision or not, will be posted within 24 hours or as soon thereafter as possible in the event of a weekend or holiday.

b. Membership.

Section 1. Initiative. Initiatives from the Associated Students at large may be submitted to the ASI BoD in the form of a petition containing the names, student identification numbers, and signatures of ten percent (10%) of the student body.

- A. A special election shall be called by the ASI President unless the petition is completed less than thirty (30) days prior to a general election.
- B. A majority vote of the filled voting positions present at the BoD meeting in favor of the proposed initiative shall be required to adopt any initiative.
- C. A two thirds (2/3) majority vote of the filled voting positions present at the BoD meeting shall be required to ratify changes in the Articles of Incorporation.
- D. The provisions of this paragraph will not be used to overturn, void, or in any way change the results of an election.

Section 2. Recall/Termination. Any director or executive of the ASI BoD may be subject to recall by a petition containing the names, student identification numbers, and signatures of fifteen percent (15%) of an office holder's constituency. In the event that the student executive or student director enters the criminal justice system for a felony charge or a misdemeanor charge egregious in nature, or is charged by the CSU and or CSUSB conduct process, Article IX, Section 12 of these bylaws will apply.

- A. The Office of Student Leadership and Engagement shall verify the enrollment status of all students whose signatures appear on the petition.
- B. After verification, a special election shall be called by the ASI President.
- C. A simple majority vote of the filled voting positions present at the BoD meeting in favor of the petition shall be required to remove the office holder.

Section 3. Referendum. The ASI BoD will be empowered to direct the Elections Committee Coordinator to place certain matters including Articles of Incorporation or bylaw changes or business before the ASI membership.

- A. A majority vote of the filled voting positions present at the BoD meeting shall be required to enact a referendum on ASI policy.
- B. A two thirds (2/3) majority vote of the filled positions present at the meeting shall be required to ratify changes in the Articles of Incorporation.

- C. The ASI BoD must designate that a referendum is either binding or non-binding at the time the ASI BoD proposes the referendum to the electorate.

Section 4. Results of Initiatives, Recalls, and Referendums. All initiatives, recalls, and referendums shall be considered binding if done in coordination with the above processes unless they contradict federal, state, or local law; the Articles of Incorporation; the ASI Bylaws or the purpose of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IX

Meetings and Procedures

Section 1. Meetings. Unless otherwise specifically provided for in these Bylaws, all meetings of ASI and its committees shall be conducted in accordance with the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order and in accordance with the provisions of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

Section 2. Notice of Meetings. The agenda of regular meetings of the ASI BoD, which shall contain the date, time, and place of the meeting and all the items to be acted on, shall be publicized at least 72 hours before a regular meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings.

- A. A special meeting can be called by the President upon a twenty-four (24) hour notice pursuant to paragraph 89922 of the Education Code for Auxiliary Organizations.
- B. A majority vote of the filled voting positions present at the BoD meeting shall be required to adopt an emergency item (as defined in Section 5 of this article) at a special meeting.

Section 4. Closed Sessions. Meetings shall be opened to the public. Meetings may be closed only for those reasons stated in paragraph 89923 of the Education Code for Auxiliary Organizations.

Section 5. Submitting Agenda Items.

- A. Any student or paid employee of ASI at CSUSB may submit agenda items for consideration by the ASI BoD. The Chair shall put the item on the next agenda to be drawn up and, if appropriate, shall send the item to the appropriate committee and notify the ASI BoD of said action.
- B. Items that are not submitted within the 72 hours before a regular meeting requirement for inclusion at the next regularly scheduled meeting may be placed on as an "emergency item" provided it meets the following criteria:
 - 1. It directly impacts a function of the Corporation, which, if not acted upon at the next regularly scheduled meeting, would have serious consequences in terms of the Corporation's ability to meet its obligations.
 - 2. The emergency agenda item must be posted at least 24 hours prior to the emergency meeting.

Section 6. Quorum.

- A. Quorum for all meetings shall be a majority of its filled voting positions. Any Special Advisor members shall not be counted as part of the quorum.
- B. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

Section 7. Board Action. The items listed below shall govern ASI Board of Directors' Actions:

- A. The ASI BoD may not take action on any item which has not been listed on the agenda that has been publicly distributed at least 72 hours in advance, with the exception of special meeting agenda items, which require requires 24 hours' notice in advance.
- B. The following actions will require two (2) readings prior to a vote of approval by the Board of Directors. A vote may be taken at the second reading:
 - 1. Approval of the annual ASI budget.
 - 2. Approval of ASI bylaws or policies.

Section 8. Roll Call Vote. The Chair of the ASI BoD shall recognize an order for a roll call vote when called for by any member.

Section 9. Policies and Procedures. New Policies and Procedures or revisions of existing Policies and Procedures, must be approved by a simple majority of the ASI BoD.

Section 10. Presiding Officer. The presiding officer and chair shall be as designated in these Bylaws or as designated under the ASI Policies and Procedures.

Section 11. Involuntary Resignation. All student members of the ASI BoD, and any committees described in these bylaws are required to attend all scheduled meetings. A student representative who fails to attend four (4) scheduled meetings in an academic year shall be considered to have resigned, unless ASI BoD finds that extenuating circumstances justified the absences under the appeal process.

Section 12. Involuntary Resignation Resulting from Criminal or Student Conduct Activity. The following rules shall apply to all student executive members, student members of the ASI BoD, and any committees described in these bylaws or otherwise affiliated with ASI, and student assistants employed by ASI who are charged by the criminal justice system with a felony as described in the California Penal Codes or a misdemeanor egregious in nature, or is charged by the CSU and or CSUSB conduct process while in office or employed:

- A. The student being charged shall immediately be placed on suspension without pay pending the final adjudication of the charge. The student will not be permitted to perform any of the duties of their position until the charge(s) has been resolved. Should the charge(s) be reduced to a misdemeanor(s) and the student be convicted of a misdemeanor, the student will be reinstated to their prior position unless the misdemeanor is egregious in nature. No back pay will be authorized while the student was on suspension pending the resolution of their case.
- B. If a student is convicted of a felony, that student's status of being on suspension will be changed to being terminated. If the student is an elected officer of ASI, their position will be vacated immediately and filled by the pro-tem for that position. If a pro-tem has not been selected, the executive position will be filled by a student member of the Board of Directors in good standing. The ASI Executive Director or, in their absence, the Assistant Director will inform the appropriate University officials of any change in status affecting the student and/or ASI. This provision of the bylaws is pursuant to the California Code of Regulations, Title 5 – Education; Chapter 1; Subchapter 4; Article 2; paragraph 41301 “Standards for Student Conduct”; sub-paragraph 18.

- C. A student who has a prior conviction of a felony and is on probation for the conviction may not be employed by ASI or be a member of the ASI BoD and will be terminated. Replacement of a student who is an elected officer of ASI will be conducted pursuant to Paragraph B above.

- D. In the event that the University wishes to take action against the student for violations of California State University or California State University, San Bernardino policies, then the student will be placed on suspension without pay pending the final decision and disposition of the university.
