

BFSSA BULLETIN

BI-WEEKLY EMAIL NEWSLETTER | MARCH 2021

MARCH 22ND

Kicking Knowledge Womxn's History Month Edition:

Join the Pan African Student Success Center and the Pan African Collegiate Scholars Program as we celebrate the Student African American Sisterhood (SAAS) and other Black Women Pioneers for Women's History Month. <https://tinyurl.com/KickinKnowledgeMar22>

3rd Annual Essential Conversations with African American Men:

The JHBC Office of Academic Equity invites you to join the 3rd Annual Essential Conversations with African American Men.

This is in celebration of Black History Month.

RSVP at <https://tinyurl.com/JHBCConvo>

MARCH 25-27

CSUSB Theatre Arts Presents Greenidge's Baltimore: A timely look at racism on a college campus in modern society, debuting on its Vimeo channel for a limited time.

Tickets on sale NOW, online only at PurplePass.com/CSUSBTheatre. Tickets are only $5.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Faculty or Staff who would like to participate in the "Multicultural Experience Day" panel for Black students on Monday, April 12 from 4-5pm, please contact Charles Gaylord, at charles.gaylord@csusb.edu. The purpose is to provide an environment committed to diversity and a place where students can explore their cultural heritage and learn from others as they prepare for their transition to college.
- SAVE THE DATE: Black Grad 2021 is tentatively set for Sunday, May 16th. Interested in helping out with Black Grad? Committee meetings are held every Friday from 12-1pm. Please contact Evelyn Knox, eknox@csusb.edu for details.
- If you have something you'd like showcased or announced in our next newsletter, please email bfssamail@csusb.edu. Information received by Monday, March 29th will be included in the next edition.

