invites applications for the position of:

Biomechanics/Motor Control - Assistant Professor Tenure Track

SALARY: Depends on Qualifications

OPENING DATE: 07/25/19

CLOSING DATE: Continuous

OVERVIEW:

The Department of Kinesiology at California State University, San Bernardino invites applications from a diverse group of qualified applicants for an Assistant Professor tenure-track position with an expertise in Biomechanics/Motor Control to begin August, 2020. The department is growing with approximately 1,000 majors. Our students choose between three concentrations: Allied Health Professions, Exercise Science, and Physical Education and Adapted Physical Education (PEAPE). Our faculty are actively involved in research and in professional organizations in their respective fields. The successful candidate will join an intellectually stimulating and innovative academic environment that embraces diversity. We strive for excellence, enhance diversity and foster harmony.

The Kinesiology department will begin offering courses at the Palm Desert Campus, which is located about 60 miles east of the main campus. Faculty may have responsibilities at both campuses.

California State University, San Bernardino (CSUSB) is located in San Bernardino in the Inland Empire, 60 miles east of Los Angeles and operates a satellite campus in Palm Desert located in Coachella Valley. CSUSB serves approximately 20,000 students, of which 81% are first-generation college students, and graduates about 5,000 students annually. As a designated Hispanic Serving Institution, CSUSB reflects the dynamic diversity of the region and has one of the most diverse student populations of any university in the Inland Empire, and the second highest Hispanic enrollment of all public universities in California. CSUSB employs 467 full-time faculty and offers 48 undergraduate, 35 graduate, and 1 doctoral degree programs and 14 academic programs with national accreditation.

At CSUSB, diversity, equity and inclusion are values central to our mission. We recognize that diversity and inclusion in all its forms are necessary for our institutional success. By fully leveraging our diverse experiences, backgrounds and insights, we inspire innovation, challenge the status quo and create better outcomes for our students and community. As part of CSUSB's commitment to hire, develop and retain a diverse faculty, we offer a variety of networking, mentoring and development programs for our junior faculty. We are committed to building and sustaining a CSUSB community that is supportive and inclusive of all individuals. Qualified applicants with experience in ethnically diverse settings and/or who demonstrate a commitment to serving diverse student populations are strongly encouraged to apply.

TYPICAL ACTIVITIES:

The successful candidate will teach undergraduate courses in Kinesiology, maintain a robust and ongoing research agenda, and mentor students at the undergraduate level. The candidate will also advise students and perform career-related service roles on and off campus for the department, college, University and professional societies. Furthermore, the candidate will also lead activities that will advance scholarly excellence in Kinesiology.

Qualified candidates must demonstrate a commitment to excellence in teaching and mentoring a diverse student population and to working effectively with faculty, staff and students across a wide range of disciplines.

In addition, new faculty are encouraged to develop and participate in activities that support the University's strategic plan. This plan emphasizes: a) student success; b) faculty and staff success; c) stewarding resources; d) community engagement and partnerships; and, e) enhancing the campus identity. CSUSB's Strategic Plan is available at <https://www.csusb.edu/strategic-plan>.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

A Ph.D. or an equivalent degree in Kinesiology/Exercise Science/Physical Education or a related field is required by time of appointment. Candidates with "all but dissertation" (ABD) are considered. A documented commitment to excellence in teaching, research, and service at the undergraduate level is expected. College level teaching experience is preferred. We strongly encourage members of underrepresented groups to apply.

Preference will be given to candidates with expertise in Biomechanics/Motor Control and teaching skills in other areas that complement our core instructional needs. These include Motor Development, Motor Learning, Statistics, Adapted Physical Activity, as well as Physical Activity courses. An ability to develop a profile of extramural funding is also desirable.

Preferred candidates are expected to meet the traditional requirements of excellence in teaching, active scholarly and professional works, and service to the University and community.
