SUPPLEMENTAL QUESTIONS

Name those qualities which you feel make you a good candidate for this position?*

As a student of CSUSB for over 2 years, I am familiar with the quality and effort that ASI puts towards their Campus Events. Because I am a Psychology major, I am aware of what type of advertisements and attractions would most likely make a student interested in our campus events. I am looking forward to being more involved on campus this year, which would give me a chance to improve my leadership skills and get to know other students!

Name any other activities which you are involved in or interest which might apply to the position you are applying for:*

Currently, I am involved in SAAB (student African American Brotherhood), which is a club that primarily allows students of color to congregate. I have helped host fundraisers, community service, and entertainment events with this club on campus, so I know what it takes to be a reliable member of an activities committee.

SUPPLEMENTAL QUESTIONS

Name those qualities which you feel make you a good candidate for this position?*

As an incoming Senior-standing Nursing student, I understand greatly the importance of effective and optimal communicative and leadership, accountability, and resource management skills. Becoming a leader for ASI and for the CSUSB campus/community requires full-range knowledge, experiences, creativity, and cultural awareness, which I believe I can confidently share with all at CSUSB. Hence, leadership, I believe, does not only involve an individual acting as a role model or prototypical example that one tries to influence others by, but also taking the chance to take advantage of the leadership role/opportunity to learn from others around you, and to also sometimes be the 'student' even with the leadership role from your followers/successors. Leadership involves not only a sense of professionalism and extensive knowledge, but also involves a major sacrifice for your followers by becoming an active listener and also taking into account the ideas from others, by taking them into consideration genuinely and also willing to learn from them and find ways to improve oneself with the ideas and perspectives of others. Above all this, it is important to also still retain one's true self while serving as both a leader and a lending shoulder. Hence, a true and effective leader is one who has both emotional and rational aspects to them in order to accommodate and be socially mindful of the diversity that makes up our society. Considering all this is mind, I believe that upon given the opportunity of becoming your board member on the Finance and Club Allocation Budget Committee, I will ensure myself that I am not only a representative, but also that I am a family member, a sister, a listener, a guide, and a shoulder to lean on. Because I hope to become a floor senatorial leader in the long-term future for my local, civil government in the far long-term (upon retirement from being an RN), and with my previous experience as a senatorial leader of my CA 32nd district, as Housing Outreach Intern with the Refugee and Immigrant Center of Utah (Asian American Association) and as a Health Operations Intern with L.A. Health Care Plan, I have found interest in furthering my leadership skills and professionalism for both myself and also for me to disseminate that knowledge that I learn from becoming a board member of the Finance and Club Allocation Budget Committee to future incoming Freshmen/underclassmen in order to continue the generation of revolutionary and stark leaders of ASI. Through my previous leadership and internship experiences, I have also realized my true fervent towards giving back to my community through service-learning, as well as bolstering awareness on minority issues and cultural competency. I believe that leadership involves an unique and astounding adventure where at every corner, there is an opportunity for learning and for amiable interactions with others. I know that it is important to not only work towards personal development towards success, but also to share and learn ideas to and from others in order to bring diversity in the means of leadership as well as the general society's layout. I hope that you would take the time to elect me as your 2020-2021 ASI Finance and Club Allocation Budget (CAB) Committee Board member, and promise that your decision will be a valuable investment, as I will use my position as your campus representative to uphold and make into reality my platform of focusing on further advocating and solidifying inclusion and diversity, cultural competency, awareness, and celebration, as well as student mental health, happiness, and wellness, such as student burnout and self-care and meditative techniques.

Name any other activities which you are involved in or interest which might apply to the position you are applying for:*

As previously mentioned, with my past experience as a senatorial leader of my CA 32nd district, as Housing Outreach Intern with the Refugee and Immigrant Center of Utah (Asian American Association) and as a Health Operations Intern with L.A. Health Care Plan, I have found interest in furthering my leadership skills and professionalism for both myself and also for me to disseminate that knowledge that I learn from becoming a School-at-Large Representative to future incoming Freshmen/underclassmen in order to continue the generation of revolutionary and stark leaders of ASI. Through my previous leadership and internship experiences, I have also realized my true fervor towards giving back to my community through service-learning, as well as bolstering awareness on minority issues and cultural competency, especially with the current threatening and hostile socio-political climate due to our current presidency and the rhetoric being glorified, for all of our POC folk on-campus, but of course, especially our Bipoc (Black, indigenous POC) individuals in our community and throughout the campus. I believe that with my profound interest in advocating underrepresented folx on-campus and my previous experience in serving as a Sophomore Senator of my previously attending institution, Westminster College (SLC, UT), I am optimally able to understand how to best support my fellows on-campus and throughout the community in order to foster a campus with further feeling of diversity, inclusion, and diversity celebration.
