

California State University, San Bernardino
School of Criminology and Criminal Justice

Application to Graduate with Honors in Criminal Justice
MUST WAIT TO APPLY IN YOUR SENIOR YEAR

Departmental Honors may be awarded by the School of Criminology and Criminal Justice to students who have met the requirements and have been judged by the faculty of the School of Criminology and Criminal Justice to have distinguished themselves in their major. GPAs are calculated at the posting of grades for the semester period prior to the final semester of study. For example, students graduating in Spring (May) Graduation- the GPA from the previous Fall semester will be evaluated for this application.

NAME: _____

MAJOR DECLARED: _____

COYOTE ID: _____

SIGNATURE: _____

CSUSB GPA: _____ [must be 3.0 or higher]

MAJOR GPA: _____ [must be 3.5 or higher]

HAVE YOU FILED YOUR GRADUATION CHECK: YES NO

Expected Graduation Date: _____

Please attach a full one-page typed paper (12-point standard font, double-spaced, one-inch margins) answering the following prompt:

What does a degree in criminal justice from CSUSB mean to you and how will you use what you've learned at CSUSB to contribute positively to your community?

CJUS students interested in receiving departmental honors must initiate the process by submitting this application to the department's Main Office SB-209 or email to dderbish@csusb.edu & cfamega@csusb.edu. Applications are due by the Census date for the term in which you graduate.