Please note: This is an update to the open letter sent to the Cal State San Bernardino community dated February 2022, extending the submission deadline for commentary in connection with the review of President Tomás D. Morales until April 15, 2022. This extension is made necessary by a transition in leadership at the California State University, Office of the Chancellor. The updated letter is as follows:

CHICO

DOMINGUEZ HILLS

An open letter to the California State University, San Bernardino community:

EAST BAY

CSU Board of Trustees policy requires its presidents to be reviewed every three years. It is now time for the review of Dr. Tomás D. Morales, president of California State University, San Bernardino. This process is intended to provide critically important feedback to the Board of Trustees and the CSU Chancellor regarding the leadership of President Morales and the current state of affairs at Cal State San Bernardino. It is also intended to be a constructive process, one that informs and guides President Morales' leadership for the benefit of the campus and the community it serves.

FRESNO

FULLERTON

HUMBOLDT

It is CSU policy to inform the university community of the review and to encourage all interested stakeholders to submit confidential commentary responding to the specific criteria posted here on the CSU website. Please ensure that your commentary addresses the criteria. Unsigned letters or petitions will not be accepted. Please submit letters or emails no later than April 15, 2022, addressed as follows:

In addition to this open letter and in accordance with Board policy, a number of officers of the university and the chairs of its major constituencies – the Academic Senate, the Alumni Association, the Associated Students, and the University Advisory Board – are being contacted directly for their comments with respect to the above criteria. Similarly, a sampling of faculty, administrators/managers, staff, students and community members have also been directly invited to submit comments. These directly invited comments will be given the same weight as those submitted in response to this open letter.

SAN BERNARDINO

Your feedback is highly valued and essential to an accurate and thorough review, and one that ultimately provides the greatest benefit to the extended campus community. Written responses will be summarized into a confidential report that will be discussed with President Morales and presented to the Board of Trustees. None of the commentators will be identified by name and, as previously noted, all responses will be treated with the strictest confidence, viewed only by a tightly restricted number of employees within the chancellor's executive office team who assist with the process.
