What it covers at CSUSB:

First time using benefits?

1. Apply to CSUSB, become fully admitted.
2. Apply for Educational Benefits and obtain a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for this benefit. (Takes an average of 30 business days to receive results from the VA.) Pay confirmation deposit when due.
3. Attend SOAR - Student Orientation
4. Register for degree applicable classes for enrollment certification (See PAWS in MyCoyote or talk to SCO)
5. Certify your enrollment at CSUSB using your MyCoyote portal.
6. Certification will be sent to the VA at the beginning of the term or when requested. No tuition and fees will be reported as you are responsible for tuition and fees. Only units will be reported.
7. Call (877) 823-2378 or visit W.A.V.E. at the end of each month to certify your enrollment and receive your stipend.
8. Any changes to your class schedule require updated certification, which will be sent to the VA. Courses not selected for certification will not be certified.
9. Stay up to date with MyCoyote to manage any holds and your benefits!

Continuing student using benefits:

1. Check for any holds from CSUSB on MyCoyote
2. Check your registration date and prepare your courses using your MyCoyote portal.
3. Request certification using your MyCoyote portal. You will have to certify every semester after you have registered for courses. Delaying this step can delay your stipend payments.
4. Call (877) 823-2378 or visit W.A.V.E. at the end of each month to certify your enrollment and receive your stipend.
