

Race and Policing

A Panel Presentation and CSUSB Campus Conversation, Featuring Students, Staff, Faculty, and Campus Guests

Wednesday, June 3, 2020, 4pm

Zoom at this link: <https://csusb.zoom.us/j/388207496>

JOIN US LIVE VIA ZOOM for a panel presentation and campus conversation on issues related to racism, racial violence, police brutality, and their impact on the community. Panelists will include staff, students, faculty, and campus guests, and topics will range from institutional racism and history, to community responses to police violence, and campus psychological and counseling support resources.

---

PANELISTS: Dr. MARY TEXEIRA is Professor of Sociology. Dr. MARC ROBINSON is Assistant Professor of History. Dr. SID CRUDUP II is an author and educator. MARLO BROOKS and KAMERON PYANT are both currently students at CSUSB. HATTIE McNUTT (M.S., LMFT) is a counselor in the CSUSB Counseling and Psychological Services. CHARLENE EATON, CSUSB adjunct instructor and doctoral candidate (Claremont Graduate University) will moderate. For questions, contact Jeremy Murray: jmurray@csusb.edu