

California State University, San Bernardino's

Pfau Library Presents

Conversations on Race and Policing

A Student-Hosted Panel and Conversation with Students, Campus Guests and Faculty

with special guest, Dr. Robin D.G. Kelley,

Gary B. Nash Endowed Chair in U.S. History at UCLA

Wednesday, June 17, 2020, 4pm

Please click the link below to join the webinar on Wednesday at 4:

<https://csusb.zoom.us/j/97960458784>

JOIN US LIVE VIA ZOOM for a panel presentation and campus conversation on issues related to policing, racial violence, solidarity in the work for racial justice, and other topics.

CSUSB Students, MARLO BROOKS, KAMERON PYANT, and YVETTE RELLES-POWELL, will host the event.

PANELISTS: Dr. ROBIN D.G. KELLEY is Distinguished Professor of History at UCLA. Dr. DAISY OCAMPO is Assistant Professor of History. Dr. AHLAM MUHTASEB is Professor of Media Studies.

TROY WILLIAMS is a PhD candidate in Civil Society & Community Research at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. ROBERTO (BOBBY) RIVERA is a PhD candidate in Sociology at UC Riverside. Like previous events in this series of campus conversations, this event will be recorded and posted at the CSUSB History Club Lecture Series YouTube page:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCILJkNoG6YO3AHF5nbE5pMA>.

For questions, contact Robie Madrigal (rmadriga@csusb.edu) or Jeremy Murray (jmurray@csusb.edu).