LETTER FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Dear Graduates:

Please accept my warmest and most heartfelt congratulations on achieving a truly momentous goal in your life. You set your sights on earning a degree; and now, that goal is a reality. That is a wondrous accomplishment, and I hope you feel a well-deserved sense of pride.

I hope you are filled with a sense of kinship and gratitude, as well. So many people have given so much to enable your success: faculty who illuminated your academic path; counselors, advisors, librarians, coaches and support staff who fostered an encouraging environment; family, friends, mentors and colleagues who gave their time and treasures to facilitate your journey. As you celebrate your success, please remember to celebrate their support as well.

Unlike any other graduating class, your university experience has been shaped in extraordinary ways by more than two years of a global pandemic. During those years, you have developed and honed attributes that will benefit you for a lifetime. Your resilience and adaptability will become career strengths. Your creativity and resourcefulness will define you. Your courage and determination are, in my eyes, already legendary. While it might have been different than the college experience you envisioned when you started your journey, these years have made you sharper, tougher, brighter and more purpose-driven than ever before.

With this rite of passage we call “commencement,” you will join a dynamic, global network of more than four million California State University alumni. They are a remarkable force for good, and I am certain that your addition will multiply their contributions to our communities, to our state and to the world. I ask that you use the knowledge, skills and personal qualities you have developed to work for justice, to seek opportunities to foster equity, and to always uplift and empower others. Stay connected to your campus and look for ways to give back. Support future generations who aspire to follow in your footsteps.

As you step boldly into your future, I know I speak for every member of the California State University community when I express our collective pride in your perseverance and success. Your resolve shines as a symbol of hope and optimism. Again, congratulations, class of 2022!

Sincerely,

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Graduates:

Congratulations, and welcome to the 2022 California State University, San Bernardino Commencement at the Toyota Arena in Ontario. I am excited to join you all over these two days of in-person ceremonies on May 20 and 21, honoring those graduating from our five academic colleges—Arts & Letters, Jack H. Brown College of Business & Public Administration, Education, Natural Sciences and Social & Behavioral Sciences.

We are grateful that we can celebrate today, together with family and friends, the significant milestone commencement represents. We also recognize and admire the resilience, fortitude, perseverance and determination you demonstrated during the uncertainties and challenges presented by the pandemic. Attaining a college degree is a defining achievement that serves as a source of inspiration and satisfaction, made all the more special if you are the first in your family to graduate from college.

As you have pursued your degree at CSUSB, you've grown intellectually, creatively and professionally. You've had the opportunity to explore new paradigms, disciplines and cultures; to discover and create meaning in new ways; and to apply a variety of perspectives to problem solving. These are noteworthy accomplishments during the best of times, and you have shown exceptional strength during these unprecedented times.

You are here today as the direct result of your hard work, focus and dedication. These qualities will serve you well into the future as you establish successful and rewarding careers. You can take great pride in this achievement as you join more than 117,000 other distinguished alumni who call CSUSB their alma mater and who are using their talents to make a difference in the world.

It is my distinct honor to congratulate you in person as you walk across the stage today, and to applaud your extraordinary achievements. I wish you the very best as you move on to pursue your personal and professional aspirations.

COMMENCEMENT SYMBOLISM AND TRADITION

Academic Regalia

Academic ceremonies with their gowns, mortarboards, tassels and hoods are colorful traditions handed down from European universities of the 14th century. Academic regalia have evolved from the robes, hoods and caps worn mainly for warmth in unheated buildings by the clerics, monks and priests who were the first students.

United States universities now have standardized the academic regalia so that their features are common throughout the country. The gown is ordinarily black for academic degrees. The pattern of the sleeves varies with the degree: short sleeves for the master's degree and round full sleeves for the doctoral degree. The bachelor's and master's gowns have no trimmings. The doctoral gown is faced down the front with black velvet and three bars of the same material across the sleeves. The color of the velvet on the sleeves also could be the color of the subject in which the degree was earned.

The hood usually is not worn for the bachelor's degree. The master's hood is shorter and lacks the panels of the doctor's hood. The silk lining of the hood bears the colors of the institution from which the individual has graduated. The velvet binding or edging of the hood designates the academic major in which the wearer has taken his or her degree.

The field of study is indicated by the color of the velvet facing on the hood of all master's and doctoral degree holders.

Official Colors

The field of study is indicated by the color of the velvet facing on the hood of all master's and doctoral degree holders.

Some examples of doctoral hoods are listed below:

Arts and Letters	White
Business Administration	Drab
Education	Light Blue
Computer Science	Gold
Sciences	Yellow
Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Nursing	Apricot

Fields of study for the master's degrees offered at CSUSB are:

Master of Arts	White
Master of Fine Arts	Brown
Master of Business Administration	Drab
Master of Criminal Justice	Purple
Master of Education	Light Blue
Master of Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Master of Natural Sciences	Gold
Master of Social and Behavioral Sciences	Citron
Master of Social Work	Citron

The University Mace

The university mace is a ceremonial symbol of authority carried in academic processions at commencements. Originating in the Middle Ages, it once was a formidable weapon, held ready to protect the person of dignity.

The Cal State San Bernardino mace was designed and fashioned by Mark Petherbridge, B.A., art, 1985, with technical supervision from Roger Lintault, professor emeritus of art, 2000.

ALMA MATER

By Loren Filbeck, D.M.A.

Professor Emeritus of Music

Beneath the shimm'ring mountains,
Near sea and desert sand,
Our Alma Mater stands secure,
Truth's light held in her hand.
Her youth and energy we share
As we reach t'ward wisdom's door,
Her name we laud and gladly bear,
With pride our spirits soar.
San Bernardino, our Alma Mater,
We sing our praise to thee.
San Bernardino, as sons and daughters
We pledge faith and loyalty.

CITATION FOR SANTOS MANUEL

Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters

*California State University, San Bernardino
Commencement, May 20, 2022*

Mr. Santos Manuel was the founding leader of the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians also known as the Serrano/Yuhaaviatam Indigneous peoples. He was born in 1814 into the village of his father in the San Bernardino Mountains and named Paakuma. At age 12, he experienced his puberty rites ceremony and was the recipient of a song that described the huge landscape the Creator had given his people, the Maara'yam. Today, Santos Manuel, is revered as the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians' spiritual leader: a visionary man who arose in their darkest hour through extraordinary leadership, ensuring the survival of their ancestors and Tribe. As the leader of the Yuhaaviatam, he had immense responsibility of caring for his people.

The San Manuel Band of Serrano Mission Indians is a sovereign, federally-recognized American Indian Tribe located near the city of Highland, California. The Serrano Indians are the indigenous people of the San Bernardino highlands, passes, valleys and mountains who share a common language and culture. The San Manuel Reservation is recognized as a sovereign nation with the right of self-government.

Mr. Manuel as an individual who had distinguished himself through extraordinary achievement, merit, commitment and accomplishments. He and his descendants have made outstanding contributions to the welfare and development of the communities of which they were or are a part, including California State University, San Bernardino. The tribal government now oversees many governmental units and focuses on building infrastructure, maintaining civil services and promoting social, economic and cultural development and operates Yaamava' Resort & Casino at San Manuel, one of the largest employers in the Inland Empire. Through this and other activities, the Tribe supports neighboring communities through financial contributions for education, health and wellness, economic development and cultural projects.

In recognition of his many accomplishments and extensive contributions, the Board of Trustees of the California State University, and California State University, San Bernardino are proud to confer upon Santos Manuel a posthumous honorary degree of Doctorate of Humane Letters.

CITATION FOR DR. PAULETTE D. BROWN-HINDS

Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters

*California State University, San Bernardino
Commencement, May 21, 2022*

Dr. Paulette D. Brown-Hinds is a well-known and widely respected philanthropist, business and community leader who has made significant contributions to communities throughout the state. She is the founder of Voice Media Ventures and a second-generation publisher of The Black Voice News, the first Black American online news publication on the West Coast. Under her leadership as the publisher, The Black Voice News has chronicled some of the most important stories impacting the lives of Black Californians through giving a “voice” to the community. The publication expanded its scope of civic involvement, addressing issues ranging from disparities in health, education and wealth to police violence, social justice and civil rights battles. An award-winning columnist and Knight Digital Media Fellow, Dr. Brown-Hinds has nearly 30 years’ experience in media, communications and community engagement.

Her interest in local journalism and doing work for the public good has led her to serve on multiple influential boards, including the James Irvine Foundation, American Press Institute, CalMatters, California Press Foundation and as the executive director for the League of California Cities African-American Caucus. In 2019, she served as president of the board of the California News Publishers Association, the largest and oldest trade association for the news publishing industry in the state. She was the first African-American elected to lead the organization. She is also the first African-American to chair the Inland Empire Community Foundation board.

As a life-long student of African-American literature, culture and history, Dr. Brown-Hinds leads Underground Railroad Study Tours for the Black Voice Foundation, stewards a collection of rare antebellum slavery artifacts and is the founder of Mapping Black California, a community mapping and STEAM initiative. She has published various scholarly articles on 20th century Black women writers. Additionally, she taught expository writing to students in the College of Social & Behavioral Sciences as an adjunct professor at California State University, San Bernardino between 1993-2013. Since 2016, she has served as an adjunct professor at the University of California, Riverside, teaching a course on connecting students in media and the arts with the broader community.

In recognition of her many accomplishments and extensive contributions to the university and the community, the Board of Trustees of the California State University, and California State University, San Bernardino are proud to confer upon Dr. Paulette D. Brown-Hinds the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.
