L. Woodney, Natural Sciences/Coaches	2020-2022
VACANT, Administrative Representative
P. Galvez, Student Representative	2020-2021

1. Membership: One tenured member of senior rank elected from each constituent unit, one student representative, and the Dean of Undergraduate Studies.
2. Duties: This committee shall review all proposed changes in the general education curriculum and make recommendations to the Curriculum Committee.

It shall review all general education course proposals in terms of how well they meet the objectives and appropriate criteria for particular subject areas.

It shall begin a regular four-year cyclical review of the general education program, reviewing Category B in the first year, Category C in the second year, Category D in the third year, and all remaining Categories in the fourth year. (This process shall begin in the 1991-92 academic year.) It shall evaluate the organization, courses and criteria for each category being reviewed, and propose adjustments or changes that are deemed necessary to preserve the consistency, quality and coherence of the overall program.

It shall monitor the number of electives approved by any of the Colleges (particularly in the Elective Options and Integrative Capstone Categories) in order to discourage excessive and unwieldy course proliferation. It shall use the number of existing courses from a specific College in a particular category or section as a factor when considering additional course proposals from that College. It shall monitor existing courses to see that they are offered at least once every other year.

It shall convene the Faculty in regularly scheduled forums addressed to improvement of the general educational curriculum.

Curriculum proposals which the committee judges to require additional faculty, staff, equipment, facilities, or financial resources shall be referred to the Educational Policy and Resources Committee for its recommendation.

VACANT, Education	2020-2022
VACANT, Natural Sciences	2020-2022
L. Looney, Social & Behavioral Sciences	2020-2022
B. Owen, Interim Director of Academic Technologies and Innovation
M. Becerra, Director of Teaching Resource Center
T. Karmanova, College of Extended & Global Education

Membership: The Academic and Distributed Technologies Committee shall include one faculty member from each College. Members shall serve two-year staggered terms, with the possibility of one-year terms to ensure that staggering ensues. The committee shall also include, as non-voting members, the Director of the Office of Academic Technologies and Innovation, the Faculty Associate of ATI, the Dean (or designee) of the College of Extended & Global Education and the Director (or designee) of the Teaching Resource Center. The Committee shall select a chair or co-chairs at the beginning of each academic year from among the voting members of the committee.

Duties:

- 1) The Academic and Distributed Technologies Committee will monitor policy issues that arise with regard to the University Policy on Distributed Learning and shall, as it considers appropriate, (a) refer a particular issue to one of the standing committees of the Faculty Senate for the development of a policy or (b) develop a policy on a particular issue itself and then refer the proposed policy to the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate.
- 2) The Committee will monitor and report on instructional technology and distributed learning trends and issues on campus.
- 3) The Committee shall seek to gather and represent faculty perspectives on questions relating to teaching, learning, or researching with instructional technologies, including distributed learning and other learning technologies, and it will work with ATI to provide services and support to the faculty. Faculty are free to bring questions and requests for support to either the Committee or ATI as they choose.
- 4) The Committee will recommend to ATI mechanisms that will support faculty in staying current on instructional technologies and distributed learning, such as opportunities for training, experimenting with emerging technologies, and support from instructional designers.

The Committee will be responsible for gathering feedback from faculty on the effectiveness and usability of the instructional technologies employed.

AWARD COMMITTEE

K. Cousins, Co-Chair	2020-2021
VACANT, Co-Chair	2020-2021
C. Huang, Business & Public Administration	2020-2022
VACANT, Arts & Letters/Library	2020-2022
J. Fiene, Education	2019-2021
C. Gentry, Natural Sciences	2020-2022
R. Samuelson, Social & Behavioral Sciences/Student Affairs	2020-2022

1. Membership:

1.1 The committee shall be formed as follows:

1.1.1 Each college will elect in the spring quarter one tenured instructional faculty member who shall serve a two-year term. The terms will be staggered. A committee member may not serve more than two consecutive terms. If the Committee is missing member(s) when its duties are scheduled to begin, the EC shall appoint a temporary committee member until a new member is elected.

1.1.2 The current year's Outstanding Professor Award winner will serve as co-chair with the current year's Golden Apple Award Winner, If one or both are unable to serve, the missing co-chair(s) shall be appointed by the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate from among previous winners of any of the awards.

1.2 The Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate shall name a replacement from the same college for any faculty member of the committee who accepts a nomination for a given award.

1.1.3 The past year's Outstanding Professor Award winner will serve on the committee following his/her year as Co-Chair.

1.1.4 The past year's Golden Apple Award winner will serve on the committee following his/her year as Co-Chair.

2. Duties:

2.1 To establish its timetable and procedures.

2.2 To solicit nominations for the awards by announcing the procedures and deadline for nominations.

2.3 To inform individuals of their nominations.

2.4 To review and evaluate the nominations for the awards.

2.5 To recommend to the President the nominees for the awards.

3. For a more detailed explanation see FSD79-220.R10.

AD HOC AND SPECIAL COMMITTEES OF THE FACULTY SENATE

COMMERCIALIZATION/ COPYRIGHT / FAIR USE COMMITTEE

D. Amodeo, At-Large	2018-2021
M. Kordrostami, At-Large	2020-2023
C. Lazar, At-Large	2019-2022
John Griffin, Director UEC (ex officio)
Dorota Huizinga, (ex officio)

The University Commercialization Committee will be composed by Associate Provost for Research, ex officio (Chair), the Executive Director of the UEC, ex officio, and three Faculty appointed by Senate Executive Committee. The faculty appointees would serve 3-year revolving appointments (one faculty member replaced each year).

Contact person is Cynthia Crawford (Interim AP for Research).

The committee will review intellectual property to determine whether the University shall commercialize the invention/creative work through a patent, copyright, and/or license agreement. The Committee may solicit advice/analysis regarding the technology from outside individuals. The inventor/creator must be present at the meeting in which their invention/creation is discussed and must be allowed to speak on their own behalf. In making its assessment, the Committee will rely on information provided by both the inventor/creator and the University. Committee deliberations will be in closed session to protect proprietary information. Similarly, committee records will be kept confidential and committee members will sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement. If the University, by either written policy or specific act, chooses not to act upon the right of intellectual property licensure or patent or similar methodology for assertion of rights, ownership passes wholly to the inventor or creator.

When necessary, the Committee shall review invention disclosures and other information to evaluate the University's contribution to the development of particular intellectual properties. In many cases the inventor/creator will reach an agreement with the University concerning ownership rights and equity interest without the need for review by the Committee. The purpose of the review will be to help the parties reach agreement within the framework of this policy. The final resolution of any disagreement concerning the application or interpretation of this policy will be governed by applicable law and collective bargaining agreements.

R. Samuelson, Social and Behavioral Sciences
B. Singleton, Library
Provost or Designee
University Advancement

Preamble: Each year, each CSU campus may submit the names of up to two candidates for honorary degrees to the Board of Trustees, which makes the final decision on these awards. Recommendations are to be submitted by the campus President after consultation “with a committee, including faculty representation, to review recommendations and to assist in the development and compilation of materials in support of nominations to be forwarded.”

Procedures:

1. Each Spring term, the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate shall constitute an Honorary Degrees Committee for the following academic year. This committee will be composed of:
 - a. The provost or designee.
 - b. Five Faculty members, one from each college, selected by Senate Executive Committee.
 - c. A member of the library staff, selected by the Senate Executive Committee.
 - d. A representative of the University Advancement office, nominated by the President.
2. Early in Fall term, the Provost shall invite all members of the University community and the general public to submit names of possible recipients of honorary degrees. A deadline of no later than November 1 should be set for these submissions.
3. The Provost shall be responsible for assembling the Honorary Degrees Committee, and instructing the committee on its charge, as soon after the submissions deadline as feasible. Taking into account the system wide guidelines for criteria, exclusions, and procedures, the committee shall consider the names submitted and determine no more than two final nominees. In the process it may consult with faculty members or others who are specifically familiar with the accomplishments of certain candidates, or with the fields in which these candidates have made their mark, as long as complete confidentiality is maintained.

The committee is responsible for compiling material to support the candidates it has chosen. No later than December 1, the committee should forward its choices, together with the supporting material, to the President. The President may then decide whether to forward both, one, or neither of the proposed recipients to the Board of Trustees.

J. Torner, Director Information Security & Emerging Tech, At Large
T. Coleman, Natural Sciences, At Large
D. Huizinga, Administrative Rep	Ex-Officio

1. Membership: The membership of the board shall consist of the following persons:

1. Five tenure-track faculty appointed by the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate in consultation with the Associate Provost for Research to include one member from each college representative of the campus community. The terms for each member will be three years and shall be staggered across the colleges. The Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate may, in consultation with the Associate Provost for Research, select additional faculty to the Board so long as each has varying backgrounds of expertise to promote complete and adequate review of research activities commonly conducted by the institution.
2. At least one member who is a current undergraduate or graduate student at the university to serve as a student research representative on the IRB committee, appointed by the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate in consultation with the Associate Provost for Research and the Associated Students, Inc. for a term of one year.
3. One administrative member appointed by the President.
4. At least one member who is not otherwise affiliated with the institution and who is not part of the immediate family of a person who is affiliated with the institution, appointed by the Associate Provost for Research in consultation with the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate
5. When the IRB reviews research that involves a vulnerable category of participants, such as children, prisoners, pregnant women, or individuals with mental or physical disabilities, the Associate Provost for Research, in consultation with the Executive Committee for the Faculty Senate, shall appoint one or more individuals who are knowledgeable about and experienced in working with these participants if members qualified as such are not already serving on the board. A prisoner, or a prisoner representative with appropriate background and experience to serve in that capacity, is required to be present and to vote when research involving prisoners/inmates is reviewed by the IRB.
6. The IRB Chair shall be sufficiently qualified through the experience and expertise and selected by and from the current IRB board. The IRB Chair will have the ability to conduct a full board meeting ensuring the board stays on track in the deliberations of human research protocols. The IRB Chair will promote respect for the IRB to the university and provide advice and counsel in safeguarding the rights and welfare of human participants. In addition to possessing the professional competence necessary to ecerra

review specific research activities, the IRB Chair shall be able to ascertain the acceptability of proposed research in terms of institutional commitments and regulations, applicable law, and standards of professional conduct and practice.

2. Duties: California State University, San Bernardino and its auxiliary organization(s), will comply with the policies for protection of human participants participating in activities supported directly by grants or contracts from the various agencies of the Federal Government, State Government, and California State Universities. In fulfillment of its assurance filed with the Office for Human Research Protections (number FWA00004865), this institution has established and will maintain an Institutional Review Board (IRB) competent to review projects and activities that involve human participants. The Board shall determine for each activity as planned and conducted whether participants will be placed at risk and, if risk is involved, whether:

- 1.the risks to the participant are so outweighed by the sum of the benefit to the participant and the importance of the knowledge to be gained as to warrant a decision to allow the participant to accept those risks;

- 2.the rights and welfare of any such participants will be adequately protected;

- 3.informed consent will be obtained by adequate and appropriate methods.

Membership: There will be 11 cabinet members in the Teaching Academy Cabinet in any given year. Those elected to the cabinet must be members of the TA. Cabinet members are expected to participate in the Academy's activities.

Each College and the library will have one elected member (either tenured or tenure-track faculty). Five additional at-large members shall be appointed by the Senate in consultation with the Teaching Academy Cabinet; these shall be selected from among all teaching faculty and librarians who apply. The TRC Director will be an ex-officio member of the Teaching Academy Cabinet. Preference will be given to active members of the Teaching Academy.

Elections, nominations, and appointments for the following Fall quarter shall take place during the Spring quarter of each year.

Members of the cabinet will serve for 3 years with no term limits. At the end of the 3-year term, the member can be re-elected or appointed to the Teaching Academy Cabinet for another 3-year term, as described above.

Mission: In collaboration with the Teaching Resource Center, the CSUSB Teaching Academy will support teaching and learning at all levels and in all contexts of university activity, and will serve as a focal point for the university's commitment to this end. In pursuing this goal, the Academy will enhance the intellectual climate, promote discourse among all members of the University community, and serve as an advocate for learning and teaching initiatives and innovations.

Core Strategies:

- To foster conversation and inquiry on teaching and pedagogical philosophy.
- To create a safe environment for faculty to learn to become better teachers.
- To act as an ad hoc advisory board on issues related to teaching, as requested.

Refer to FSD 04-10.R4 (the committee will gradually transition into the committee structure described above)

Membership: Faculty members shall serve three-year staggered terms.

Faculty representation from each College is requested to work with staff and students beginning in April. The purpose of the Committee will be to provide guidance and recommendations on implementing the sustainability goals that our University has publicly committed to. It's important that all areas of CSUSB understand their role and responsibilities, and have the opportunity to be a part of and influence the work of the committee.

The Sustainability Committee will be an advisory/recommending body while the working groups will be implementing tasks and reporting quarterly to the Committee. This will be captured in the governance documents that should be developed in collaboration. Faculty representatives from each College will work with members of their College to support the sustainability efforts of the University.

General Responsibilities of the IT Governance Executive Committee

The IT governance executive committee is responsible for the following:

Establishing and communicating a campus-wide IT vision that supports the University mission and goals;
Establishing IT policies that support strategic, campus-wide IT priorities;
Defining technical architecture and standards for the University;
Establishing best practices and tools for IT across campus.

IT Governance Values:

- Transparency — Governance committee and processes must be clear. How decisions are made and who has input rights and decision-making rights must be readily apparent to campus.
- Communication — Communication must occur into, out of, and across the committee and with campus.
- Accountability — Sub Committees and task forces must be held accountable for delivering on their responsibilities. Clear escalation paths for issue resolution must be defined.
- Assessment – Making sure that measureable objectives are met within the agreed upon timelines
- Responsibility — Governance structure must focus on results rather than implementation and project management.
- Appropriate representation — Constituency groups across campus must be represented.
- Active support — Governance structure requires staff to support the process. Agenda setting, meeting logistics, issue tracking, and communication are all essential aspects of active support.
