

DEI Curriculum and Student Learning Subcommittee

January 12, 2021

- I. Welcome
- II. Subcommittee Charge Refresher

DEI in Curriculum and Student Learning: The charge of this committee is to study and make recommendations on enriching the curricular and co-curricular offerings, creating inclusive classrooms and embedding DEI in all aspects of the curriculum and student learning.
- III. Approval of Minutes from 11-10-2020
- IV. Lessons Learned from January 6 – see “Colleges Share the Blame...”
 - How does our current curriculum “address the racism that undergirds” the policies and practices that led to last week’s events?
 - How might our curriculum and overall learning environment better “develop critical and moral-reasoning habits that will serve [our students] in future positions of responsibility?”
 - How might our curriculum better equip our graduates to be “stewards of truth” and more effective “advocates for racial justice”?
- V. Today’s Work – Recommend objectives to the Executive Committee regarding the key goals from the Diversity Mapping exercise (see MS Teams for full document).
 - Goal 1: Solidify CSUSB’s Innovative DEI infrastructure.
 - Goal 2: Create a Campus of Belonging.
 - Goal 3: Create a “Closing the Equity Gap” Plan for URM Students.
- VI. Adjourn

A Trivial Moment: On This Day in Music

Not to be confused with an ode to Batman’s nemesis, on January 12, 1974, this wild card of a song reached the #1 spot on the U.S. singles chart. It was the first of three #1 songs by this eponymous band. And please, let’s not confuse them with the outgoing senior advisor for 45.
