Documentary Screening and Q&A with Academy Award Winning Director Ross Kauffman

Using a cinéma vérité (truth cinema) approach, the documentary follows the Emergencies Team—or E-Team—investigators of Human Rights Watch in the field as they sneak across the border into Syria to conduct undercover investigations as the civil war rages. Amidst bullets and bombs we watch as they work to halt human rights abuses in the aftermath of the Gaddafi regime in Libya.

Thursday May 28, 2015 6-7:50 p.m. CE-105

The event is co-sponsored by the Department of Communication Studies, Society for Student Filmmakers and University Diversity Committee.
