

Egypt Adventures

Work with a friend to complete these silly stories! Fill in the blanks, following the directions listed below them, and once all the words are filled in, read your story out loud!

The royal artist looks at me and _____. He knows verb ending in -s

I've been banned from _____ in the _____ and that verb ending in -ing noun

I was sent to _____ with him as a last resort. So we start verb

with something _____: drawing. I sketch a(n) _____ adjective animal that I think looks _____. But when I show it to the artist, adjective

he compliments me instead on the beautiful _____. I've musical instrument drawn. Hmm, I think. We switch to sculpting, and he hands me a lump of _____ to mold into the Queen's likeness. something squishy

I _____ and _____, then present my work to the artist. verb verb

He _____ and scolds me for sculpting _____ instead verb ending in -s type of plant of the Queen. Next, he asks me to simply paint a(n) _____.

type of bird

But I can't even do that -- my painting looks more like a(n)
_____ . He thinks of one last thing I might be _____ something scary adjective at: mummy-making. _____! I think.

exclamation