

EGYPTIAN BRACELET SET

Age Range: Any

Description: The ancient Egyptians loved including different types of jewelry into their outfits! Create your own just using an empty toilet paper roll and some coloring tools! Pair this with the Pharaoh headdress to get the full look!

Historic Context: In modern culture jewelry is sometimes cornered as something that women wear. In ancient Egypt, however, both men and women wore jewelry. Jewelry was also more than an item worn to make you look good, although a person's wealth was certainly revealed through the material and craftsmanship. A bracelet often had many different charms. These charms might be things like the Eye of Horus or a Djed Pillar. Things symbols were worn for their protective value and were intimately tied to the religious and philosophical beliefs of the Ancient Egyptians.

Time: 30 min

Materials Needed: coloring tools, two empty toilet paper rolls, scissors

STEP ONE: DRAW OUT YOUR SNAKE ON THE CARDBOARD

STEP TWO: CUT THE OTHER ROLL DOWN THE MIDDLE

STEP THREE: CUT THAT ROLL IN HALF TO GET TWO SEPARATE PIECES

STEP FOUR: CUT OUT YOUR SNAKE

STEP FIVE: COLOR & DECORATE

SHOW US YOUR CREATION #RAFFMACSUSB

STEP SIX: WEAR & ENJOY

SHOW US YOUR CREATION #RAFFMACSUSB