
JHBC OFFICE OF ACADEMIC EQUITY

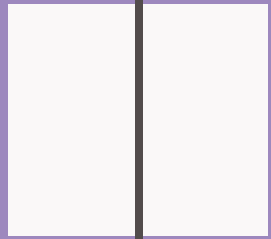

JHBC IN MOTION

Summer 2021

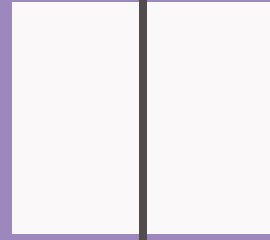

Lisa Gordon

For her participation in the event: “Lean into Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. The event explores the benefits of DEI.

Theresa Salas

For her willingness to lead conversations with a group of students about human connectedness after watching documentaries establishing that connectiveness implies relationships based on trust and mutual respect.

Jamie Ayala

For her participation in the event “Student Parents (SP)”. SP provides supports to student parents and other underserved student populations.

Lisa Pena

For her willingness to lead conversations to empower all women after watching documentaries establishing that women have to overcome the barriers of race and gender.

Erin Yela

For attending the "Assessment Capability Leadership Institute (ACLI)" ACLI provides an opportunity for staff to focus on their leadership ability to create assessment supporting student's success.

Dr. Anna Ni

For her participation in the 50/50 Women on Boards' Path to the Boards workshop. The event describes the new laws in terms of boards' participation.
