

Kevin Shaw joined CSUSB in August 2015 and spent four years in the College of Natural Sciences in a development support role. During this time, his focus was primarily on assisting the Director of Development with securing corporate and foundation grant opportunities for the college. In December of 2019, Kevin joined the Corporate and Foundation Philanthropy team as a Grants Analyst specializing in post-award processes and management. In this position he is tasked with engaging and collaborating with campus leadership, principal investigators, and support staff across the university on philanthropic gift grant contract compliance, finance tracking, and reporting.

Kevin is a proud CSUSB alum and graduated in 2014 with a bachelor's degree in English and a specialization in writing. In his free time he enjoys exploring the southwestern United States with his wife and two dogs and enjoys mountain biking, fishing, golfing, and camping.
