

WSCUC Monthly Update March 2021

I. Steering Committee Meeting: March 5, 2021

On March 5, 2021, the WSCUC Steering Committee met to report back regarding the offsite review visit on February 25, 2021. The Deputy Provost and Vice Provost for Academic Programs and WSCUC ALO shared the meeting's attendance, explained commendations, and the WSCUC Lines of Inquiry. The university will provide updates on specific focus areas. From now and until the onsite visit, Deputy Provost and Vice Provost Weber asked the committee for volunteers to create a committee of eight to ten members who will work with her to set up appropriate meetings for the three-day hybrid site visit, organize logistics, and prepare presentations. Deputy Provost and Vice Provost Weber thanked everyone, and thanks were expressed among many committee members.

II. Onsite Visit Operations Committee: March 25, 2021

On March 25, 2021, Deputy Provost and Vice Provost Weber convened a WSCUC Operations meeting to discuss creating the new Onsite Visit Operations committee, transitions, and next steps. This committee includes Clare Weber, Julie Lappin, Pamela Langford, Muriel Lopez-Wagner, Ginny Stewart-Hattar, Judy Sylva, Sunny Hyon, Janelle Gilbert, and Faika Lore. Primary responsibilities include logistics and content preparation for the onsite visit scheduled for September 22 to 24, 2021.

III. Upcoming Steering Committee Meeting: May 28, 2021

Our next Steering Committee meeting is scheduled for May 28, 2021.
