Osher Lifelong Learning Institute offering summer classes virtually

PALM DESERT, Calif. – Adults 50 and over can register for online summer classes at the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at Cal State San Bernardino’s Palm Desert Campus.

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute is a program designed for adults 50 and older who want to experience learning for the fun of it. OLLI offers non-credit, university-level courses, but without the grades, tests or homework. Membership is open to adults who enjoy learning, regardless of their educational background.

“In addition to our traditional courses, we offer a variety of free member events, discussion groups and a fabulous educational travel program,” said Sue Anderson, director of the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute. “Even though we can’t meet in person on campus right now, we still have a very robust selection of classes and activities being offered online this summer and fall. We also provide training and support to help people get started.”

For more information, call (909) 537-8270 or visit the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute website at www.csusb.edu/OLLI.

The CSUSB Palm Desert Campus offers bachelor's and master's degrees, a doctorate in educational leadership, and teaching credentials and certificates. With more than 1,600 students, it is the Coachella Valley's four-year public university and plays a vital role in educating and training the region's growing population.
