

PSCHENT HEADDRESS

Age Range: Any

Description: The Pschent represented power of both the upper and the lower parts of Egypt. Create your own and wear it like the Kings of Egypt did!

Historic Context: The Pschent Headdress represents the unification of upper and lower Egypt. It was also called the “shmtj” which means “The Two Powerful Ones.” The Pschent Headdress is a very little combination of the hedjet crown, or the white crown of Upper Egypt and the deshret, the red crown of Lower Egypt. The famous Narmer Palette depicts the pharaoh Menes unifying Lower and Upper Egypt, however, it was more of a conquest that took place and Upper Egypt won. It is said the Menes invented the double crown known as the Pschent Headdress, but the first pharaoh to wear the crown was Djnet. The god’s Horus and Atum are also depicted wearing the Pschent Headdress.
