3. Describe your plans for using the $1,000 professional development monies (some examples are membership dues for professional associations, conference travel/participation, training events).
4. Provide a statement of financial need (either FAFSA report, or narrative explanation when FAFSA is not available).

Does RSA specify the geographical location in which the work requirement must be satisfied?

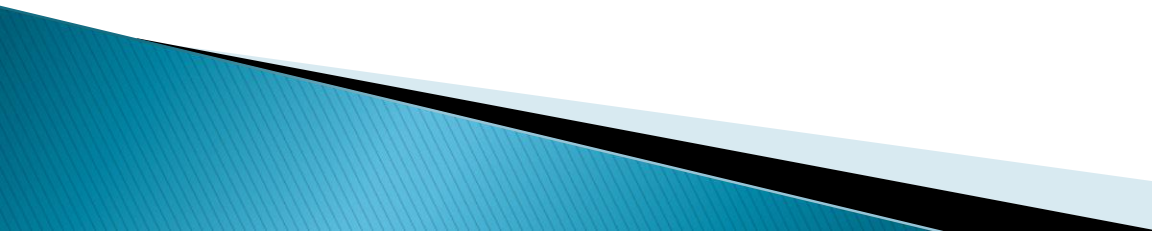

- Regulations implementing the payback requirement do not specify the geographical location in which the work requirement must be satisfied.
- A RSA scholar may select where he/she wishes to seek and maintain employment, provided that within the required period of time following the completion of training, the employment obligation is fulfilled with a State VR agency or related agency. (34 CFR 386.40).
- RSA scholars should be aware that due to recent economic conditions, it is not uncommon for scholars to relocate in order to secure qualifying employment.

What is the definition of a State VR agency?

- State vocational rehabilitation agency means the designated State agency as defined in 34 CFR 361.5(c)(13).
  - For California, this means the Department of Rehabilitation (DOR).
  - If you are looking at employment in other states and are not sure if an agency is a designated State agency, please contact us.

What is meant by a "related agency?"

- Congress recognized that State VR agencies often accomplish their mission through formal or informal agreements with other programs.
  - The employment obligation may be met by obtaining and maintaining employment in the field in which the scholar was trained in a related agency providing services under an agreement with a State VR agency.
  - A related agency may include a Federal or State agency, a nonprofit organization, or a for-profit professional corporation or professional practice group, so long as there is an informal or formal agreement with the State VR agency. (34 CFR 386.4)

Must scholars serve State VR clients exclusively in full- or part-time employment in a related agency?

- If a scholar works for a related agency, he/she is not required to serve only rehabilitation clients of the State-Federal programs of VR, supported employment, or independent living in his/her job.
- The requirement can be met if he/she is employed on a full- or part-time basis by the qualifying organization, and the work is as a consultant or practitioner serving rehabilitation clients under an agreement with a State VR agency. (34 CFR 386.4; 34 CFR 386.40)

Must scholars work on a full-time basis in a qualifying agency?

No.

- A scholar may work on a full or part-time basis for either the State VR agency or a related agency.
- If a scholar works part-time, he/she still has an obligation to work the full-time equivalent of two years for each year for which assistance was provided within a period of not more than the sum of the number of years owed and two additional years.
- Depending on the length of the service obligation, it may not be possible for a scholar to meet all of his/her service obligation while working part-time. (34 CFR 386.40(a) (7))

Does volunteer work count towards the payback requirement?

No.

Volunteer work does not count toward the payback work requirement.

If a scholar engages in employment for a State VR agency or related agency while in training, will that count toward payback?

No.

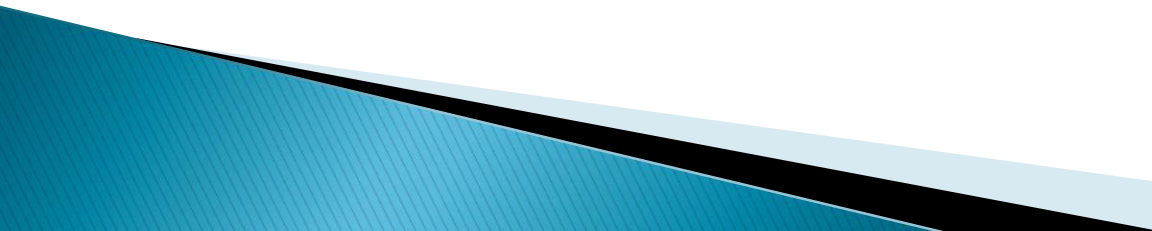

- Rehabilitation employment while in training for which the scholarship was awarded does not meet the work requirement.
- The regulations clearly state that the scholar will maintain employment in a qualifying agency "beginning after the recipient completes the training for which the scholarship was awarded."
(34 CFR 386.40).

What happens if I can't complete the payback requirements within the timeframe?

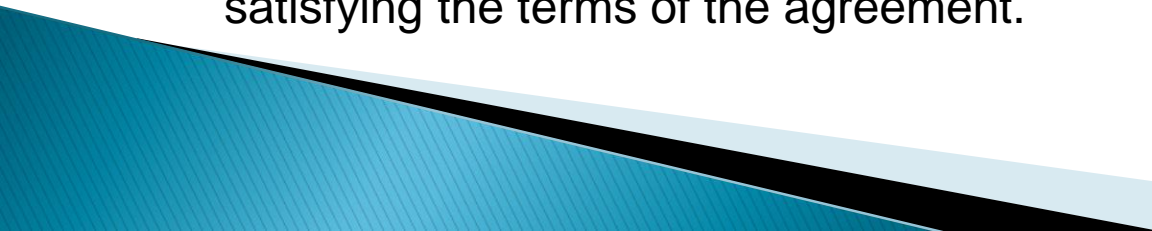

Contact us for more details specific to your case. In general, there are three possibilities:

1. If there are no extenuating circumstances (or we haven't heard from you after repeated requests for updates), then we will submit paperwork to RSA for them to contact you regarding monetary payment of the remaining amount owed.
2. If there are extenuating circumstances, such as continuing your education in a rehabilitation counseling doctoral program, you can ask for a deferral by contacting us to complete the necessary paperwork to submit to RSA. Deferrals are not automatic and can take time for approval.
3. If you have a permanent disability (must have worsened since entry into the program of study or you must have acquired additional disabilities for a waiver to be granted), you can ask for a waiver by contacting us to complete the necessary paperwork to submit to RSA. Deferrals are not automatic and can take time for approval.

RSA Scholarship Agreement

- ▶ An expectation that the scholar will complete a minimum of one semester (or an equivalent of 300 hours over two semesters) of fieldwork at a designated State rehabilitation agency (e.g., CA DOR).
  - ▶ An expectation that the scholar will maintain or seek employment as a rehabilitation counselor in a State vocational rehabilitation agency or related agency as defined in 34 CFR 386.4 after graduating or leaving the program.
  - ▶ Scholarship funds include all disbursements or credits for student stipends, tuition and fees, and student travel in conjunction with training assignments.

RSA Scholars Agreement

- The scholar agrees to maintain employment as a rehabilitation counselor --
    - (a) in a State vocational rehabilitation agency or related agency as defined in 34 CFR 386.4;
    - (b) on a full or part-time basis; and
    - (c) for a period of not less than the full-time equivalent of two years for each academic year for which scholarship assistance was received beginning after completing the training for which the scholarship was awarded.

  - If the payback is not met by the RSA scholar, the scholar will repay all or part of any scholarship received, plus interest.

  - The employment obligation as applied to a part-time scholar will be based on the equivalent total of actual academic years of training received.

  - Until the employment obligation is satisfied, the scholar will inform the Rehabilitation Counseling Program of any change of name, address, or employment status and will document employment satisfying the terms of the agreement.
