

China and the Uyghur Muslims

— A Human and Cultural Genocide —

The Uyghurs are a largely Muslim ethnic minority people living mainly in China's northwestern region of Xinjiang, who also have a significant diasporic community.

The Center for Islamic & Middle Eastern Studies and the History Department invite you to a panel presentation and discussion with Drs. Nurnisa Kurban and Dru Gladney on the Uyghur people in historical and contemporary geopolitical context, both in China and around the world.
