

Colleagues,

I am honored to announce that the California State University Board of Trustees has unanimously recommended the awarding of an honorary doctorate degree to one of Korea's most impactful philanthropists and foundation leaders.

On the recommendation of the CSUSB Honorary Doctorate Committee, the Board has named Dr. Sang-Kyun Lee to earn the California State University's highest honor at the College of Arts and Letters Commencement ceremony on Saturday, June 15, 2019.

A comprehensive biography on Dr. Lee will be distributed campus-wide later today.

I want to personally thank our dedicated colleagues who served on the honorary doctorate committee this year, including Xiaoyu Huang, Assistant Professor, Management; Stacie Robertson, Assistant Professor, Special Education Rehabilitation & Counseling; Richard Samuelson, Associate Professor, History; Brent Singleton, Librarian, Pfau Library; Stuart Sumida, Professor, Biological Sciences.

Tomás D. Morales
President