IMPORTANT REMINDERS

INCUBATOR RULES!

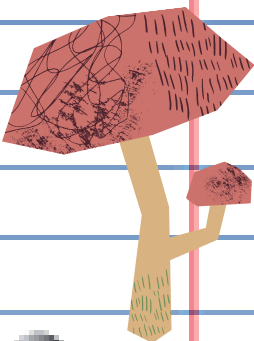

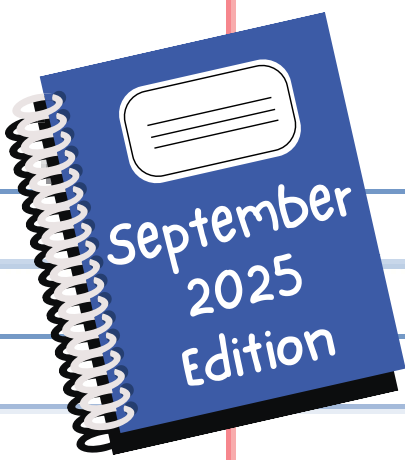

A reminder that this is a place of learning and a place of business. As this room is first inside the entrance of the Honors space, you are representatives of the Honors College.

Kindly:

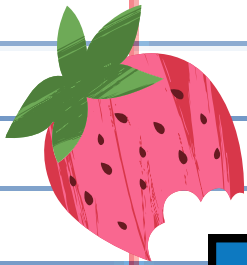

- Keep your volume to a dull roar while classes are in session. The door should be able to remain open.
- Use respectful language.
- Don't record others without their consent before recording.
- Be mindful of what content you have showing on the TV.
- Clean up after yourselves.
- Keep in mind that this is an Honors Space, not a private space. Be mindful of your PDA.

While it is reserved for Honors students, this is still a social and public place where peers, faculty, staff, administration, and campus visitors can come in at any time.
