Social Work Degrees offered at CSUSB

BASW: the Bachelor of Arts in Social Work is an entry level degree in the profession of Social Work. Our CSWE accredited BASW program is an exciting and highly structured program that prepares students for employment as social workers in a variety of agencies and settings, along with further education in social work and related fields.

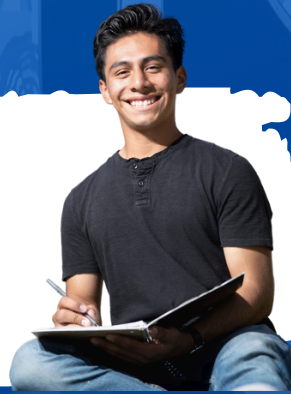

MSW: the Master of Social Work degree is designed to prepare advanced social work practitioners as change agents in complex situations, leaders, and interprofessional and interagency collaborators. The MSW program emphasizes the National Association of Social Workers' core social work values, professionalism and excellence in critical analysis.

Offered at San Bernardino
Campus and
Palm Desert
Campus

California State University, San Bernardino School of Social Work offers social work degree programs at both campuses, Palm Desert Campus and San Bernardino Campus. Students can obtain a Bachelor of Social Work Degree (BASW) and a Master of Social Work Degree (MSW) at either campus. All social work students will receive education and training both in the classroom and at a practicum site.
