

New for Fall 2026: Fully Online!

MS in Nursing, with a Concentration in Population Health Leadership for Nurse Educators

2026-2027 Plan of Study

YEAR 1

Semester 1 – Fall (8 units)

- NURS 6010 Epidemiology & Biostatistics (3)
- NURS 6005 Introduction to Advanced Nursing Practice (2) (CF) (W 1-8)
- NURS 5544 Integrated Pathophysiology, Health Assessment, & Pharmacology (3) CF (W 9-16)

Semester 2 – Spring (6 units)

- NURS 6015 Application of Theory and Research for EBP and QI (3) CF (W 1-8)
- NURS 6020 Population Health Promotion I: Ethical Leadership in Practice and Policy (3) CF (W 9-16)

YEAR 2

Semester 3 – Fall (8 units)

- NURS 6205 Nurse Educator: Curriculum & Instruction (4)
- NURS 6120.60 Population Health Promotion II: Assessment of a Population's Health (2)
- NURS 6120.20 Population Health Practicum II (2) (90 hours) preceptor/faculty supervision/project

Semester 4 – Spring (10 units)

- NURS 6210 Nurse Educator: Assessment & Evaluation (3) CF (W 1-8)
- NURS 6215 Nurse Educator: Technology for Instruction & Evaluation (2) CF (W 9-16)
- NURS 6220.60 Population Health Promotion III: Health Program Planning, Implementation, & Evaluation (2)
- NURS 6220.20 Population Health Practicum III (2) (90 hours) preceptor/faculty supervision/project
- NURS 6225 Nurse Educator: Clinical Educator Internship (1) (45 hours practicum)

YEAR 3

Semester 5 – Fall (6 units)

- NURS 6320.20 Population Health Practicum IV: Integration (2) (90 hours) preceptor/faculty supervision/project
- NURS 6225 Nurse Educator: Academic Educator Internship (2) (90 hours practicum)
- NURS 6902 Preparation for Culminating Experience (2)
- NURS 6980 Culminating Evaluative Experience: Comprehensive Exam (0)

Additional Requirements

Completion of 405 practicum hours.

Attendance at Graduate Orientation (online).

PROGRAM NOTES

All courses are required to complete the MSN Program.
Courses must be taken in sequence as outlined in the plan of study.
Each course is offered one time per year only.

*Compressed Format: 1st Half (Week 1-8) and 2nd Half (Week 9-16)