

Thriving Meeting Greeting

Culture of Thriving

CSUSB's Thriving Committee Presents this greeting to be used at the beginning of any meeting, event, or ceremony. Feel free to adapt as needed!

Greeting

As members of our university community, we are committed to fostering a safe, respectful, and caring environment. In our meetings, we uphold student success as a shared priority, engage with one another respectfully and professionally, and collaborate in ways that strengthen our community. Let us approach our discussions with empathy, transparency, and a shared commitment to kindness, accountability, and constructive dialogue.
