

Parent and Family Orientation

Registration Guide

Registration

Parents and Family members must register and pay for Parent and Family Orientation using the Coyote Family Portal (CampusESP). To register, Parents/family members will need their student's first and last name, student's coyote ID number, and the Orientation date their student registered for. The cost per parent/family member is $40.00. Only a maximum of four (4) family members per student can attend due to limited space.

This is the link for registration:

Parent and Family Orientation

CSUSB recognizes that parents and families play an important role in their student's success in college.

CSUSB provides a one-day orientation program for parents and family members in addition to the two-day orientation session for your student. Parent & Family Orientation is only offered to families of first-year students in June. While Parent and Family Orientation is highly recommended, it is not required. However, students must attend their orientation. Due to space restrictions, only three (3) parents and family members may attend.

Despite taking place simultaneously, First Year Orientation and Parent and Family Orientation are two distinct programs. While our presentations are explicitly created with families and parents in mind, some may overlap with the student program.

The Parent and Family Orientation fee is $40 per registered parent or family member. Do not pay for your student's orientation fee here. Your student's orientation fee will be charged to their student fees for their first term. Please make sure your student has registered for their orientation BEFORE you register and pay for Parent and Family Orientation.

Parent and Family Orientation Summer 2026

CSUSB recognizes that parents and families play an important role in their student's success in college. New Student Orientation and Family Programs Office offers a one-day orientation program for parents and family members in conjunction with your first-year students' two-day overnight orientation session. The Parent and Family orientation session is on Day 1 of the student 2-day program. Parent and Family Orientation is highly recommended. It is not required. However, students must attend an orientation session to register for fall classes. Parents and Families DO NOT stay overnight with their student.

Despite taking place simultaneously, First Year Student Orientation and Parent and Family Orientation are two distinct programs. Our orientation presentations are explicitly created with families and parents in mind, some presentations may overlap with the student program.

Due to limited space restrictions, we can only offer space for four (4) parents and family members per student to attend. If additional guests need to attend, please contact the New Student Orientation and Family Programs Office at (909) 735-5233.

Parent & Family Orientation is only offered to families of first-year freshmen students in June. There are only 6 Parent and Family Orientation sessions between June 4th and 30th. Please make sure to select the same orientation date as your student during the registration process.

The Parent and Family Orientation fee is $40 per registered parent or family member. This is NOT a payment for your student's orientation fee here. Your student's orientation fee will be charged to their student account for their first term. Please make sure your student has registered for their orientation session BEFORE you register and pay for Parent and Family Orientation.

When registering for Parent and Family Orientation, please make sure to have your student's ID number, coyote email address, and orientation date available. Once your payment is processed, please save a copy (printed or electronic) and bring it with you to check in. Parent and Family Orientation check-in location will be at the Santos Manuel Student Union South Event Center.

We are excited to welcome you to the Coyote Family!

Location: Santos Manuel Student Union South Event Center
