SPaRA Workshop

Thinking About Grad School? Start Here!

DTL: Thursday, Nov 5 • 12-12:45 pm • JB 382

In this workshop, you will gain a clear, practical understanding of the graduate school application process. You'll learn how to identify programs that align with your goals, write a strong personal statement, and build a competitive CV. We'll also cover how to request effective letters of recommendation, communicate with potential advisors, and avoid common application pitfalls. By the end, you should feel more confident, organized, and ready to take the next steps toward applying to graduate school.
