

What is the purpose of ALFSS?

- Encourage the involvement of students, staff, faculty and administrators of the university community on issues pertinent to Latinos.
- Promote the participation of youth in higher education through scholarship funds.
- Further the personal and professional advancement of Latino faculty, staff and students at CSUSB.
- Disseminate information about CSUSB to the community in general, and the Latino community in particular.
- Promote public interest in understanding the rich and varied Latino culture.

Since 1985, ALFSS has awarded more than $250,000 in scholarships to new and continuing CSUSB undergraduate and graduate students, including graduating high school seniors and community college transfer students.

Association of Latino Faculty, Staff and Students (ALFSS)

alfss.csusb.edu

Patricia Aguilera and Robert Garcia
Scholarship Chairs
Cal State San Bernardino
5500 University Parkway
San Bernardino, CA 92407
paguiler@csusb.edu
(909) 537 – 3440

ALFSS is committed to serving a diverse community. ALFSS affirms the multiculturalism of CSUSB and invites students of all ethnicities to apply.

We seek to eliminate discrimination based on gender, class, economic status, ethnicity, sexual orientation, age, physical ability, cultural and religious backgrounds.

The Association of Latino Faculty, Staff and Students is a non-profit organization affiliated with California State University, San Bernardino.

Association of Latino Faculty, Staff and Students

Education - Unity - Achievement

2018-2019 Scholarship Guidelines

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
SAN BERNARDINO

What is available?

ALFSS anticipates awarding approximately five $1,000-$1,500 scholarships during the next academic year.

ALFSS affirms the multiculturalism of CSUSB and invites students of all ethnicities to apply.

Scholarship Requirements

Maintain a competitive grade point average. The determination of a competitive GPA will be based on the applicant pool.

Be a full-time undergraduate, credential or graduate student enrolled at CSUSB during the 2017-2018 academic year.

Complete the CSUSB online scholarship application (accessible via MyCoyote).

Provide one online letter of recommendation from a current or previous instructor.

Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or California DREAM Act Application.

Application Criteria and Process

The ALFSS scholarship is an on-campus scholarship that is administered by the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships. The scholarship is available to all incoming and/or continuing CSUSB students. An ALFSS scholar is selected based on success in the areas of academic performance, volunteer and work experience, future educational and career goals and, most importantly, involvement and contributions to the Latino community.

Application Process:

Complete the online application (accessible via MyCoyote portal) to current CSUSB students and

- incoming CSUSB applicants with a Coyote ID. Must be submitted online by March 2nd.

Submit an autobiographical statement; a letter of

- recommendation is required to be uploaded into the application no later than two weeks after the
- application deadline by a teacher or faculty member.

Select Latino Culture in the Cultural Interests section of the application as shown here

- Cultural Interests

Please check any areas in which you have interest(s).

- African-American culture
- Asian culture
- Latino culture
- Native American culture

2019 DEADLINE: March 2nd

Supporting Student Success
by providing scholarships

For more information about ALFSS or the scholarship program, contact the Scholarship Chair:

Patricia Aguilera, Scholarship Chair

paguiler@csusb.edu

(909) 537 – 3440

Robert Garcia

rgarcia@csusb.edu

(909) 537 - 5449

Follow-us on Facebook

@CSUSBALFSS

Association of

Latino Faculty Staff and Students

Visit us at:

alfss.csusb.edu