

Diverse Learning Environments Survey

2015-16 Survey Administration (n = 590 sophomores and juniors)
Higher Education Research Institute - UCLA

Students agree that their school values diversity...

93%

Encourages students to have a public voice and share their ideas openly

97%

Has a long-standing commitment to diversity

96%

Appreciates differences in sexual orientation

97%

Promotes appreciation of cultural differences

And students contribute to that by engaging with others.

92%

Make an effort to get to know people from diverse backgrounds

83%

Discuss issues related to sexism and gender differences/equity

83%

Make an effort to educate others about social issues

75%

Study with students from a racial/ethnic group different than their own

CSUSB is a welcoming campus that empowers everyone to thrive and succeed.

Faculty and staff contribute greatly to this environment...

97%

Staff recognize student achievements

89%

Instructors value differences in the classroom

90%

Instructors encourage different perspectives in class

87%

Faculty empower students to learn here

Which makes students feel supported.

86%

Students feel faculty believe in their potential to succeed academically

77%

Students feel a sense of belonging to this campus

85%

Students feel comfortable sharing their perspectives and experiences in class

87%

Students feel their contributions are valued in class

Together we thrive and engage in diversity.

90%

Instructors teach tolerance and respect for different beliefs

72%

Students challenge others on issues of discrimination

82%

Instructors encourage students from diverse backgrounds to work together

However, we understand it's a work in progress.

7%

Students have experienced discrimination, bias, or harassment

17%

Students have heard faculty express stereotypes based on social identity

13%

Students felt insulted or threatened because of their race/ethnicity