GRADUATE STUDENT ADMISSIONS POLICY FAM 841.3

Purpose and Scope

The minimum GPA requirements for graduate student admission are mandated by Title 5, Division 5, Chapter 1, Subchapter 3, of the California Code of Regulations (a GPA of 2.5 overall or in last 90 quarter units). This policy brings the CSUSB graduate GPA admission requirement in line with Title 5 while at the same time allowing individual The Department/School/Program the authority to set their own requirement above what is stipulated in Title 5.

Policy Statement

In accordance with Title 5, the minimum GPA requirement for admission to post baccalaureate study at California State University, San Bernardino is 2.5 overall or in last 90 quarter units or 60 semester units.

The minimum requirements for admission to post baccalaureate study, including GPA, are fully elaborated in the University Bulletin of Courses. As described in the University Bulletin, admission to a graduate program is the purview of the Department/School/Program to which the student is applying and may require a minimum GPA for admission above 2.5. The Department/School/Program also has the authority to set other criteria in addition to GPA.
