

Unit Overload

1. Academic Course Load

ORIGINAL

Academic Course Load

Students planning to finish their undergraduate degree requirements in four years by attending three quarters each academic year must complete a minimum of 15 degree applicable units per quarter. To be considered full-time for veteran benefits and financial aid purposes, an undergraduate student must enroll in a minimum of 12 units. Students may register for up to 17 quarter units per term (seniors may register for up to 19.5).

Academic Course Load

Students planning to finish a 180-unit undergraduate degree in four years must complete an average of 15 degree applicable units per quarter (45 units per year, including summer). To be considered full-time for veterans benefits and financial aid purposes, an undergraduate student must enroll in a minimum of 12 units. Students may register for up to 20 quarter units per term.

2. Unit Overloads

ORIGINAL

Unit Overloads

A student may register for more than 17 units (19.5 for seniors) only upon petition to his or her college dean. Normally, petitions are approved only if both the grade point average for the previous term and the overall grade point average are 3.0 or better. Additional units may be added once "Open Enrollment" begins, if classes remain open and the overload is approved. During summer, only 17 max units are allowed for the term.

Unit Overloads

A student may register for more than 20 units only upon petition to his or her college dean. Normally, petitions are approved only if both the grade point average for the previous term and the overall grade point average are 3.0 or better. Additional units may be added once "Open Enrollment" begins, if classes remain open and the overload is approved. The Course Overload Permit form requires the signatures of the course instructor, department chair and college dean.
