Court Ordered Restitution

What is Restitution?

Money for losses sustained as the result of being a victim of crime. The Victim's Bill of Right Act in the California Constitution states that, "all persons who suffer losses as a result of criminal activity shall have the right to seek and secure restitution from the persons convicted of the crimes causing the losses they suffer."

Can the offender ask for a restitution hearing?

Yes. If the offender disagrees with the amount of restitution ordered by the judge, he/she can ask for a hearing.

Is restitution a life-long debt?

Yes. Restitution does not go away until it is paid in full. Even if an offender moves out of state or files for bankruptcy, the restitution debt remains.

What is the difference between a Restitution Order and a Fine?

A Restitution Order is what the offender must pay to the victim and a fine is what the judge can order the offender to pay society.

What if the offender cannot pay at the time of sentencing?

Restitution fines and orders never expire.

Even if the offender cannot pay at the time of sentencing victims may collect at a later date.

PLEASE NOTE:

The majority of programs listed under the heading of Child Abuse Treatment & Parenting Class offer both services. However, a few may have discontinued offering one or the other since publication of this resource guide.

As of December 2015, the programs listed have stated they meet the legal requirements for court ordered Child Abuse Treatment and are monitored by the San Bernardino Probation Department. However, you must verify at the time of your enrollment that this information remains true.

Domestic Violence Assistance

Does your partner prevent you from seeing family and/or friends?

Does your partner intimidate or threaten you?

Has your partner ever prevented you from leaving the house, getting a job or continuing your education?

Has your partner destroyed things that you care about?

Does your partner constantly criticize you and your abilities?

Has your partner forced you to have sex or engage in sex that makes you feel uncomfortable?

If there is a weapon in your house, has your partner ever threatened to use it against you when he/she is angry?

If you answered YES to any of these questions, you should seek help because you may be in an abusive relationship. The abuse is not going to go away by itself. The violence is going to get worse and more frequent.

It is very important for a person who is going through domestic violence to have an escape plan in case he/she needs to get out of an abusive situation quickly and be prepared for the next step, either to call the police, find a safe place to stay, such as a family/friends house or a shelter.

Some of the steps that you can follow are listed below.

- Move to a room with easy access to an exit. Don't go to the kitchen, bathroom or other areas that are near possible weapons.
- Know the quickest route out of your home. Practice escaping that way.
- Domestic Violence does not just occur in your home.
- Know the quickest route out of your workplace. Practice escaping that way.
- Pack a bag and have it ready. Keep it hidden but make it easy to grab quickly.
- Tell a trusted neighbor about your abuse and ask them to call the police when they hear a disturbance.
- Have a code word to use with your kids, family and friends so they will know to call the police and get you help.
- Know where you are going to go, if you ever have to leave. (See the next page for shelters).
- Use your instincts.
- Collect all important paper work and keep it in a safe location

Something to remember: After the last telephone call you make before you leave your house dial your own telephone number and hang up (if your abuser hits redial they will continue to get a busy signal and have no idea who you last spoke with).

Utility Assistance

Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP) is provided in the form of a credit on your utility bill for gas, electric, wood or propane. No cash or checks are ever distributed to clients directly. Credits are paid out directly to the utility companies, or wood and propane vendors. There are three ways by which you may obtain assistance:

Energy Crisis Intervention Program (ECIP) provides assistance to low-income households that are in a crisis situation. Examples include a household that has received a 24 or 48-hour disconnect notice or service termination by their utility company or an energy-related crisis of life-threatening emergency exists in the applicant's household.

For Emergency Utility Assistance you must have a disconnected and final call notices on utility accounts. Clients must:

- Call HEAP Direct Appointment Lines 909-723-1680 or 909-723-1681 to schedule an appointment Monday-Friday between 8:00 am and 4:45 pm. Clients are no longer taken on a walk-in basis.
- Attend one of the scheduled Energy Education Workshops available on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, or Thursdays at 8:00 am or 1:00 pm. Be early and prepared with all required documents. Call the workshop number at 909-723-1500, and select option 2, then option 2 again for requirements.

Non Emergency Utility Assistance

Clients without a disconnect notice, may apply for an annual HEAP credit by contacting HEAP to receive an application packet by mail to be returned to us completely filled out. You may also download the required forms from the website listed below and mail them back to HEAP. It takes six to eight weeks once the application is approved for the credit to be applied to your specified utility bill.

Wood and Propane

Clients may apply for Wood or Propane assistance by contacting HEAP to receive an application packet by mail to be returned to us completely filled out. You may also download the required forms from the website listed below and mail them back to HEAP. It takes four to six weeks once the application is approved for the credit to be applied to your specified vendor.

Apprenticeships California's Best Kept Secret

Apprenticeship training is for women and men who earn while they learn through a planned, supervised on-the-job work combined with related classroom instruction. Apprenticeships are not for everyone. To be successful, the individual must have perseverance, ambition, and initiative. Like a college education, the successful completion of an apprenticeship does not come easily. You must be willing and able to get up early, take direction from journeypersons, follow precise safety standards and attend classes at night. But at the end of their apprenticeship they get a journeyperson's card that is proof of their skill and experience for when they look for work. Not to mention the salary and benefits that go with it.

Following is just a sample of the many apprentice opportunities available.

Acoustical Installer 657-571-0449	Auto Glass Glazier 714-894-4094	Barber 909-388-6000 760-212-1996	Bricklayer 626-573-0032	Carpenter 909-824-9033	Cement Mason 626-856-5750	Drywall Finisher 323-727-2811
Electrician 909-890-1703	Fastener Tech- nician 562-404-4295	Heating/Air Conditioning 714-779-3199	Machine Tech- nician 562-404-4295	Moldmaker 562-404-4295	Marble Finisher 626-329-0850	Painter 714-258-8370
Pavement Striper 951-248-4341	Plasterer 909-631-0963	Plummer 909-825-0359	Roofer/Sealer 909-469-9847	Sheet Metal Worker 714-779-3199	Surveyors 800-409-1800	Tile Setter 800-409-1800 626-571-0273

Steps an applicant should take

- Select an occupation for which you have an aptitude or some previous experience and the physical ability to perform. View the complete list of apprenticeships online at the www.dir.ca.gov website.
- Find out if you meet the minimum qualification for that occupation.
- Decide whether you can work under the required job conditions, some of which may be hazardous, dirty, uncomfortable or otherwise unpleasant.
- Apply for the apprenticeship either directly to an employer in the occupations, the union, or the California Employment Development Department.
- Take an aptitude or other tests where required.
- If the apprenticeship committee has a waiting list of applicants, determine whether or not you are sufficiently interested in the occupation to wait for an opening, or whether you should seek other employment.
- Some apprenticeship committees have applicants find their own employment with a firm which participates in the apprenticeship program.

EDD Bonding Program

www.bonds4jobs.com/highlights.html

How is Fidelity Bonding Beneficial for Job Placement?

Employers view ex-offenders and other at-risk job seekers as potentially untrustworthy workers. Insurance companies will not cover risky job applicants under most circumstances. Anyone who has ever "committed a fraudulent or dishonest act" is deemed NOT BONDABLE and causes the job seeker to be routinely denied employment opportunities. However, Fidelity Bonding service at no cost to employers, employees, and job seekers protects employers against possible theft and dishonest or fraudulent acts, and help alleviate employers' concerns in hiring ex-offenders and at-risk job applicants. This program is funded and administered by the Employment Development Department (EDD) in partnership with the U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration.

California Voters Rights

AM I ELIGIBLE TO VOTE?

Many inmates are not aware of the fact that they may be eligible to register and vote in California elections.

There are issues on the election ballot that may affect inmates and their families. Inmates are encouraged to exercise their voting rights to express opinions on those issues.

Contrary to popular belief, persons who have been convicted of a felony in California may be eligible to register and vote after they have served their sentence and are no longer on probation or parole.

For more information Call Toll Free: 1-800-881-VOTE (8683) or on-line at: www.ss.ca.gov/elections

VOTER REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS

If you are an inmate in a San Bernardino County Jail and want to register to vote, you must meet the following requirements.

Section 12/510.0 Inmate Voting Eligibility-An Incarcerated inmate may vote in local, state, and federal elections if:

- He is at least 18 years old at the time of the election;
- He is not serving time for a felony conviction;
- He is not on parole;
- He is a citizen of the United States.

Pre-sentenced detainees accused of a felony or misdemeanor may have the right to vote. The Registrar-Recorder will make the final determination regarding an inmate's right to vote.

Inmate Voting Guides, registration forms, and ballots are available at the San Bernardino County Registrar of Voters. Inmates are encouraged to contact the Registrar of Voters office directly for election information 909-387-8300.
