

TRANSFER TIPS

Financial Aid does not transfer from one school to another. You must reapply each year. For TRANSFER students, the procedures you follow will depend on your circumstances and the time of the year that you transfer.

Please keep in mind that you may or may not be awarded the same type or amount of aid at the new school because of different costs of attendance and availability of funds.

- Tip 1: List CSU San Bernardino on your FAFSA (school code is 001142). If you did not list CSU San Bernardino, you may call the Central Processor at 1-800-433-3243 to request that a copy of your FAFSA be sent to CSU San Bernardino.
- Tip 2: You are transferring from a semester-based college or university and you were awarded a Pell Grant and/or a Federal Direct Loan, you will receive your remaining eligibility at CSU San Bernardino.
- Tip 3: If you borrowed under the Federal Direct Loan Programs, contact your Direct Loan Servicer to notify them of your school change.
- Tip 4: If you are receiving Cal Grant A or B, notify the California Student Aid Commission (CSAC) of your change in schools. You can do this by logging onto <https://mygrantinfo.csac.ca.gov>
- Tip 5: If you are receiving a private scholarship at your current school, contact the school and the donor of the scholarship to notify them of the school change. You can apply for CSU San Bernardino scholarships on-line at <http://finaid.csusb.edu>.
